Marion School Board Will Place 4-Mill Levy on November Ballot

'Hobo Basket' Aids Drive

A "HOBO BASKET," loaded with money for the March of Dimes fund campaign, left Marion yesterday after collecting $400 in contributions from Erie Railroad employes.

N. L. Swartz, yard brakeman in Marion, is shown handing the basket to C. H. Odier, road conductor from Huntington, Ind. The basket is on its way to Huntington during a trip through 28 states.

The "hobo basket" is the third basket passed around the country since the idea started in 1947. Passed from different railroad lines, the first two baskets collected over $40,000.

Freight conductors carry the baskets from terminal to terminal. Contributors names are incribed to a scroll carried in the basket and the donations are given to March of Dimes headquarters in the city or county where the basket stops.

Money Would Go To Boost Teacher Pay

Kindergarten Part Of Defeated Spring Tax Request Removed

The Marion City School Board last night voted to put a four-mill school levy on the November ballot.

The levy, three-fourths of a mill less than one which was defeated in the May primary, will be used to increase teachers' pay.

If the levy passes, beginning teacher salaries, for degree candidates, will be $3,200. Present starting salaries are $2,600, far below the state and national averages, according to Supt. Lester L. Dickey.

Kindergartens Ruled Out

If the levy passes, funds will not be used for the formation of kindergartens, the board said. Three-fourths of a mill on the defeated May levy would have been used to start kindergartens.

Dickey said low salary schedules here have caused the worst teacher employment situation here in recent years. Dickey said 28 teachers are still needed, while only 6 were needed at this time last year.

Still needed are 13 elementary teachers, 9 secondary and 6 special teachers, he said. The shortage of elementary instructors is due to late resignations, he said.

Nine Teachers Employed

If approved in the November election, the levy will last for five years. A simple majority vote is needed for the levy to pass, compared with a 60 per cent vote needed in the primary. The May levy received more than a simple majority but less than the required 60 per cent.

In other action, the board: hired nine teachers and a secretary; accepted resignations from six teachers and four non-teaching

Wants Pledge Of $1,600 To Cushion Loss

Would Serve Another 3 Months and Then 3 More Without Help

A proposal which would guarantee bus service in Marion until January was presented to members of the Retail Board of Managers and the Promotion Committee of the Chamber of Commerce at a joint meeting yesterday noon.

Francis Pogue, local manager of the Marion City Lines, division of Springfield City Lines, Inc., briefly outlied the proposal, company policy and future operating plans.

Will Underwrite Loss

As tentatively approved by 16 of the 18 businessmen represented at the meeting, the plan is for local merchants to underwrite, within limitations, losses of the bus firm, between now and Oct. 1. If a majority of the merchants agree to this part of the proposal, the bus company would then agree to continue operations on its own, without financial assistance, "at least until Jan. 1."

If by that time, total bus business for the preceding nine months indicates the company can operate "in the black" on a year-around basis, a permanent franchise would be sought from City Council.

Pogue said the company hopes and sincerely believes it may not have to call for any financial assistance during the next three months but wants an agreement in case the operation does lose money.

$1,600 Maximum

As proposed by the company, the total maximum amount all the participating merchants would be asked to contribute to the bus company operation would be $1,600 for the entire three-month period.

Mere approval by the merchants of this plan, which the company hopes it will not be required to use, will guarantee continued bus service through the heavy shopping months and possibly beyond that time if business warrants, Pogue said.

Fight Victim Is Sent Home From Hospital

Cardington Resident Recovering, Assailant To Be Charged Today

Everett Richendollar, 52, of near Cardington, wounded three times in a shooting episode in Morrow County Sunday, was discharged from Morrow County Hospital Monday afternoon to his home.

The condition of Lunas Johnson, 54, of near Marion, his assailant, was reported as "good" today at Marion City Hospital where he was taken for treatment of a wound suffered in the gun battle near Cardington Sunday.

Both Johnson and his intended victim, Richendollar, were wounded in the fracas which started on Route 529, near Cardington, at 1:30 p.m. Sunday.

Morrow County Prosecutor Gale B. Weller said he would file a charge of shooting with intent to kill against Johnson sometime today.

Morrow County Sheriff George Mosier said the battle started when Johnson, riding in a car driven by Charles E. Conners of Marion, shot Richendollar as the Conners car passed the one in which Richendollar and his wife were traveling.

Council Given Task of Issuing Charter Copies

One Must Be Sent To Each Voter Prior To November Election

The problem of bringing a proposed city charter before Marion residents for acceptance or rejection was placed before City Council at its meeting last night.

Henry Mickley, a member of the Marion Charter Commission, presented copies of the proposed charter, which calls for a city manager form of municipal government, to the Council and announced that this action essentially completed the work of the committee.

In answer to questions from several councilmen, City Solicitor George Piacentino said the next steps are for the Council to pass necessary legislation to have the issue placed on the November ballot and appropriate funds to pay for printing and mailing of one copy to each registered voter in the city.

Placentino said he must know the cost of printing and mailing prior to preparing legislation to appropriate funds needed for this purpose.

"On this point, City Auditor Elmer Shaw suggested that the matter be referred to some com-

Flies to Paris

Dulles Joins Talks At French Request

PARIS (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles arrived here today and said he considers that a collective defense organization for Southeast Asia could help France get "just and honorable peace terms" in Indochina.

Dulles flew into Paris aboard a U.S. Military Air Transport Constellation for a British-French attempt to convince him an "honorable" peace can still be won in Indochina—and that his presence in Geneva would help win it.

He is scheduled to talk with French Premier Pierre Mendes-France and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden. Eden and Mendes-France left Geneva earlier today to be on hand for the conference.

In a statement, Dulles recalled he had come to Paris last April 13, before the Geneva conference started, to talk about forming a Southeast Asian defense pact.

At that time, he said, he felt such an organization would help France. "I still feel the same way," he added.

He went on to explain:

"The United States is not itself a belligerent and therefore not a proper party to many aspects of the problem which are the principal concern of the Geneva conference. However, we do have a great and continuing interest in collective action by France, Great Britain, the United States and other free countries to promote the peace and freedom of the area.

"This, as well as pressing european problems, will, I hope, be among the subjects of our conversations here, which are bound to re-emphasize to the Communists the futility of their efforts to divide us."

The reference to European problems indicated Dulles expects to discuss plans for the six-nation European army which France has delayed placing before its Parliament for ratification.

Dulles' flight here was in answer to an urgent appeal from Mendes-France. On leaving Washington last night, the American secretary emphasized that Paris was his present destination.

At conferences this afternoon and tonight, Mendes-France and Eden will outline the prospects for an

Year's Biggest Heat Wave Has Nation Panting

The biggest heat wave so far this summer has spread across the country with little relief in sight.

The mercury was expected to climb to the mid 90s today throughout Ohio despite a scattered cloud overcast. By 9:30 this morning, the mercury stood at 82.

In Marion yesterday, the temperature reached the 91-degree mark, but according to forecasts will go over that today. Low reading for the night was only 67. A year ago the maximum temperature was 89 and the low 55.

According to an Associated Press dispatch today, the mercury zoomed to an unofficial 121 degrees in Pittsburg, Kan., yesterday and plus-100-degree readings were common from the Rockies eastward to the Great Lakes.

In Kansas City, where the temperature reached 109, so many people turned on their air conditioners that power lines became overloaded. The Kansas City Power and Light Co. said power use hit an all-time high last night.

Midwest City, an Oklahoma City suburb of 20,000, ran out of water as 107-degree heat led to record consumption. Officials said shortages will occur daily as long as the heat continues.

These all-time high heat records were set yesterday:

Columbia, Mo., 113; Springfield, Mo., 108; Rapid City, S.D., 109; Dallas, Tex., 110.3; Oklahoma City, 107; and Casper, Wyo., 104.

The temperature reached 90 or above in all states except a strip along the Atlantic coast from the Carolinas to New England and in the northwest over Washington.

French Begin Leaving Son Tay Bastion Only 25 Miles From Hanoi

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—Vietminh mortars shelled French army headquarters at Son Tay, 25 miles northwest of Hanoi, last night and sniper warfare rang through the streets of the defense outpost town of 6,000.

A French army spokesman said civilians were moving out of Son Tay as rebel pressure built up in that sector and across the northern Red River delta defense area.

Forty-one rebels were reported killed and 17 captured in various actions during the night. There was no announcement of French losses.

Between Son Tay and Hanoi Vietminh guerrillas attacked a French highway guard patrol but were driven off by a tank squadron that rumbled out of Son Tay to the rescue. Twenty Vietminh were killed and seven captured in the roadside fight.

California Girl Facing Quiz in Sheppard Case

Ex-Lab Technician Given Wrist Watch by Bay Village Osteopath

CLEVELAND (AP)—Authorities say they plan to question a former Bay View Hospital medical technician, now living in Downey, Calif., about her relationship with Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard.

The technician, a 24-year-old Miss Susan Hayes, told a reporter last night she was the woman who was given a wrist watch by the Bay Village osteopath, whose pretty, 31-year-old wife was backed to death last July 4.

The girl's explanation was the same as one Dr. Sheppard told police several days ago.

She said Dr. Sheppard, while attending a medical convention in Los Angeles last March, had asked her to accompany him to the wedding of a friend.

At the wedding, she lost her watch, and the osteopath gave her a new one to replace it. The girl

Tests Run in Idaho

Atomic Engine Whips Up Power To Spare for Sub

WASHINGTON (AP) — The land-based model of the world's first nuclear submarine engine "has already produced more than enough power to send an atomic submarine around the world, fully submerged and at full speed."

The Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee said so today in a report to the Senate and House recommending a series of changes in the basic Atomic Energy Act.

The engine, a land-based "prototype" of the atomic engine now installed in the USS Nautilus, is located at the Atomic Energy Commission's testing site in eastern Idaho.

'Still on Horizon'

Speaking of prospects for economic atomic power for industry, however, the committee said only that such an objective "is on the horizon, though not within our immediate reach."

The legislation which the committee recommended would generally carry out President Eisenhower's recommendations for changes in the 1946 Atomic Act to allow exchange of some nuclear secrets with Allied nations and permit private industry to enter the atomic power field.

The bill as a whole was unanimously approved by the 18-member committee, but some members expressed sharp dissents on some sections. The Senate may begin debate on the measure late today or tomorrow.

Provisions of Bill

The bill would:

1. Authorize the negotiations of agreements with foreign nations in the area of peacetime uses of atomic energy. The committee said this would provide "a mechanism to implement the President's peacetime international atomic pool plan."

2. Permit the AEC to transfer to another nation participating in such an agreement atomic materials in quantities needed for the development or utilization of atomic energy for non-military and research purposes.

3. Allow transfer to another nation, or to a regional defense organization, secret data concerning the tactical employment of atomic weapons—but not including any information on their design and fabrication.

Ike's Plans Hit

Showdown on Highways Proposed by Governors

BOLTON LANDING, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine of Pennsylvania proposed and Gov. Goodwin J. Knight of California endorsed today a plan for a showdown conference of governors with President Eisenhower on a projected 50-billion-dollar highway program.

Criticize Program

In a point-by-point criticism of an Eisenhower proposal laid before the 46th annual Governors Conference here by Vice President Nixon, Fine told his colleagues.

"We want the federal government to get out of the gasoline and fuel oil tax field once and for all and now is the time to do it before we embark on any large scale highway program such as the President has suggested."

Eisenhower proposed that the federal government and states cooperate to build a system of roads aimed at providing transportation for an expected 200 million population by 1970.

The President's proposal was interpreted by Fine, a Republican supporter of the Administration, as placing a "cloud" on the states' control of road building activities and as involving continued federal aid which a majority of the governors have opposed.

Fine said he thinks the states should "take advantage of the President's offer" only after a conference of the governors in Washington this fall where "we can determine once and for all what is meant by it."

Gov. Knight, also a Republican, supported the conference proposal—so long as the meeting is held after the November elections in which he is running.

Wants State System

So far as Pennsylvania is concerned, Fine said, "We want to continue to build our own roads unimpeded by any federal system because there is in our state—and has been for some time—a highway program that will take 12 years to complete."

Almost without exception, Republican and Democratic governors agreed that the country needs a 10-year expansion of roads that would shape up as one of the country's greatest permanent, nonwar construction programs.

But there was a distinct feeling

Columbus City Council Okays Probe Request

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Spurred by reports of "wide open gambling" here, city council last night voted 5-2 to appoint a committee to investigate the unofficial charges.

Council President O. J. Fillinger indicated Gov. Frank J. Lausche would be called to testify before the three-man committee along with Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner and State Liquor Director Anthony A. Rutkowski.

But Councilman Jerry Spears Jr., who heads the committee, branded as "just ridiculous" a suggestion that the hearings be televised.

The investigation stems from allegations made by Robert H. Warner to Gov. Lausche last week. Warner, a juke box distributor here, set off a grand jury investigation 14 years ago that resulted in 73 men being indicted for gambling.

Lausche claims the gambling "expose" is a political move to embarrass him and Mayor Sensenbrenner, both Democrats.

Sensenbrenner often has been at odds with city council since his election last fall. Lausche seeks a fifth term this year.

Sensenbrenner said he would welcome the investigation but added:

"I don't know why they're picking on the mayor. This is a job for the chief of police. We have given instructions time and again to get rid of gambling wherever it's found."

Franklin County Prosecutor Frank H. Kearns said he might seek a grand jury investigation of gambling if the evidence warrants it.

Wants Answer on EDC

Knowland Repeats Stand On French Military Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California said today he still believes the United States must get a definite answer soon from France regarding German participation in the anti-Communist European Defense Community.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee by an 8-5 vote yesterday softened a Knowland backed proposal to cut off military aid to France and Italy on Dec. 31 unless they ratify EDC by the end of this year, but Knowland told reporters he believes "some acceptable formula may be worked out" to get a tougher form of that provision.

Knowland indicated that he and other Senate Republican leaders will continue their fight on the Senate floor.

The foreign relations committee, yielding to state department appeals, reversed itself on the cut-off provision and accepted a less stringent plan adopted earlier by the House.

The armed services committee gets a chance at the foreign aid bill before it goes to the floor because much of the money involved is for arms aid.

Voting on the losing side in the Foreign Relations Committee for the virtual ultimatum to France and Italy were Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate Republican leader, and Sen. Ferguson of Michigan, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee.

The votes of five Democrats and three other Republicans gave the administration the 8-5 margin which deleted from the bill wording which would have ordered a shutoff of all foreign aid, military and nonmilitary, to France and Italy Dec. 31 if they had not joined EDC

Flood Victim Persistent, Likes Helicopter Rides

ERDING, Germany (AP)—An U.S. Army helicopter pilot aiding in flood rescue work in Bavaria, told this one today:

He plucked several marooned people from a farm house. Later he took a man from a housetop who looked vaguely familiar.

"Didn't I bring you out a few hours ago?" the pilot asked.

"Yes," replied the man. "I enjoy riding in a helicopter and so I went back by row boat."

A tour of the rose garden at the R. E. Copeland home at 294 Franklin St. and a talk on care of roses by Mr. Copeland were included in a luncheon meeting of the Garden Gate Unit of the Marion Garden Club Friday, with Mrs. Copeland as hostess.

For the luncheon, roses formed the decoration, and a centerpiece was of roses and pearl flower, together with sprays of ivy. The social committee was composed of Mrs. Ed Meredith, Mrs. C. N. Briggs, Mrs. Ralph Slagle, Mrs. Odell Thompson, Mrs. H. S. Ellis, and Mrs. J. B. Corbin.

For roll call, favorite roses were named. Mrs. John Wesley announced a dinner meeting for 12:30 p.m. Aug 12 at the community rooms of the West Town Branch of National City Bank, with Mrs. Gladys Arter as program director. An exchange of perennials will be held. The committee in charge will be Mrs. Fred Dutt and Mrs. Robert Shuey.

Weddings

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Charlayne Huggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Huggins of Dayton, and Michael O. Phillips of Westerville. He is the son of Mrs. Frank W. Phillips of 269 N. Seffner Ave. and the late Mr. Phillips.

The wedding took place Saturday, June 26, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening in the Belmont EUB Church in Dayton. Officiating for the double ring ceremony was Rev. Murn Klepinger.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white embroidered organdy over taffeta, trimmed with embroidered medallions. Her fingertip length veil of white tulle was caught to a crown of net trimmed in mother of pearl flowers. She carried white roses centered with a white orchid and she wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Glendine Wadlington, and bridesmaids were Miss Jean Tompson, Miss Wanda Spence and Mrs. Jean Freeburn. Their gowns were of white organdy over varied shades of blue and they carried colonial bouquets of red and white carnations. They also wore arrangements of like flowers in their hair.

Don Walters served as best man for the bridegroom, and ushers were Sandy McPherson, Ford Swigart and Roy Schutz.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Huggins wore a royal blue crepe dress with white accessories, and Mrs. Phillips was attired in an ice blue dress of lace and crepe with pale pink accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink roses.

Following a reception for 150 guests at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left on a wedding trip. Mrs. Phillips was wearing a gray gabardine suit with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. They will reside in Columbus.

Mrs. Phillips was graduated from Stivers High School and Otterbein College and was a teacher in the Dayton schools last year. She will teach in Columbus this year. Her sorority is Epsilon Kappa Tau. Mr. Phillips was graduated from Harding High School and Otterbein College and will enter Ohio State University school of medicine in October. He is a member of Eta Phi Mu Fraternity.

At the rehearsal party at the home of the bride's parents, the couple presented gifts to their attendants.

Strange Logic

By George Sokolsky

The Gray Manufacturing Company of Hartford, Connecticut, some time ago issued an advertisement in a number of publications showing a big ferocious bear. The caption read: "The Truce of the Bear" and the following stanzas from Rudyard Kipling were quoted

SOKOLSKY

"When he stands up like a tired man, tottering near and near;
When he stands up as pleading, in wavering, man-brute guise,
When he veils the hate and cunning of his little swinish eyes,
When he shows as seeking quarter with paws like hands in prayer,
That is the time of peril—the time of the Truce of the Bear!"

It was what is known as institutional advertising and expressed the views of Walter Ditmars, the president of the company. The advertisement was issued, as is customary, through an agency, French & Preston, Inc., and was printed in magazines

I do not know whether such advertisements sell the product of the company because no attempt to do that was made

APPARENTLY Mr Ditmars likes Kipling and dislikes Russia

Thereupon the agency received a form letter from the American Association of Advertising Agencies Interchange of Opinion on Objectionable Advertising. This letter contained the following criticism:

"Poor taste, timing and handling. Giving ammunition to 'unfriendly nation. Could be used against us."

Mind you, the advertisement consists of nothing but the ferocious bear and Kipling's lines. Kipling has not been poor taste, lo! these many years and it is a little difficult to grasp how the particular unfriendly nation could become more unfriendly than it has been since 1948.

So, James Selvage who runs this advertising agency inquired at first politely as to who made the criticism, so that he could argue the point with him. No soap! The critic had to remain incognito although the criticism might reflect on the company sponsoring the advertisement, the agency and possibly even on Rudyard Kipling who never liked the Russians anyhow, he being a British Imperialist in the days when the Empire stood firm at the Khyber Pass.

TO GIVE "ammunition to unfriendly nation," is a dangerous thing to do It might even lead to a congressional investigation or to an FBI field check

In effect, the anonymous author of the accusation, whose name was safely guarded during months of correspondence, says that to run an advertisement against Russia is to give Russia Ammunition.

This is like saying that we must all agree with Malenkov lest disagreement perhaps annoy that roundish gentleman and cause him to get very angry and call us names such as Durak' or Bourjouiet (I guarantee all editors and readers that these terms are not obscene, only offensive, and that they may be published without fear of arrest)

The author of the protest may be an honest man; he may be well-intentioned. Certainly the organization which distributed the anonymous criticism is worthy and the idea of an interchange of ideas among the huksters is of the best.

Writers are partial to hucksters who provide the revenue on which we live but I do not understand the criticism nor did Mr Ditmars who wondered what the fellow meant, if he meant anything at all

IS HE ONE of those who believes that nothing should be said against Russia or the Communists, lest they get angry and throw a nyet at us"

There are such people, although their logic is not understandable And that leads to a fantastic term which has come into our language, the anti-anti-Communist. This is a person who dislikes Communists but even more so dislikes anti-Communists He puts them all in the same barrel, but the way it works out, he really helps the Communists by fighting their active enemies.

They prefer to strangle Marxism by sweetness and light which Marx, Engels and Lenin debunked long ago.

The magazine, "Time," recently referred to me as the high-priest of anti-Communism which I took as a very great compliment, particularly from that publication I suppose the anti-anti-Communists felt that "Time" had knocked me for a loop Who knows the foibles of the human mind'

Unprepared

By Victor Riesel

Many a Londoner would be surprised to learn that there is an "underground city" below the walks of the Knightsbridge district. The few Americans who know of it believe it to be atomic-bomb proof and capable of sustaining a large force of men below the surface for months.

RIESEL

Americans need not worry about being similarly surprised They won't be There aren't any "underground cities" in our big industrial areas There aren't many duplicate facilities to replace even portions of the vital machine tool plants, the electrical equipment industry or the steel mills—all of which are so concentrated in four or five sections of the U S. that they could be blotted out easily if just a few enemy planes got through

Obviously the government is counting on some enemy planes getting through if war comes, and we seem to be preparing for all-out mobilization If we're not, then a lot of labor experts meeting in New York and Washington these past weeks have been wasting much of their valuable time.

THEY HAVE BEEN talking about "post-attack programs," the freezing of wages and prices; the "voluntary mobilization" of labor and the need to recruit an enormous number of women for the behind-the-lines operations of the armed forces so manpower can be released for the necessary defense factories and the front lines

The grim fact is that virtually 95 per cent of American industry and practically all of U S. labor is completely and utterly unprepared for aerial atomic attacks if war breaks.

Only 10 or possibly 15 major corporations of the several hundred upon which this nation depends for its steel, guns, ammo, and flying, crawling and floating weapons, have standby headquarters.

Only this handful has alternate post-attack command headquarters in areas beyond the 10-mile limit which is counted from the perimeter around the industrial target area Standard Oil of New Jersey has a substitute headquarters 20 miles out of New York in an old sanitarium. This is stocked with two weeks' provisions — and equipment — for the firm's 65 top executives and their aides The company's "peacetime" headquarters is in New York's Rockefeller Center.

AMONG THE OTHER companies that have disaster headquarters or have at least looked into some kind of A-Bomb defense are General Electric, Westinghouse Electric, U S Pipe and Foundry, American Type Founders, U S Steel, American Machine and Foundry, Budd Co. and the Koppers Co.

This last firm has done what is considered the most detailed job It studied one of the tornado-hit cities Then it came up with a plan which called for the training and assigning well in advance of substitute executive staffs

Koppers has assigned one man to head the post-attack program. He will make all decisions and have a safe place to work.

The post-attack headquarters with microfilmed records is in a secret spot. There have been rehearsals and retraining as flaws were discovered The company executives have learned to watch for live electric wires, to prepare torches to cut wreckage and to get up special protective equipment and gas masks. They have two-way radio systems to replace dead phones They have a positive identification card system in colors.

THEY HAVE BEEN warned that there will be widespread loss of lives and they will have only 10 or 15 minutes to get set for an attack — if they aren't hit out of a clear sky. They have been cautioned, too, that there must be a constant watch kept for sabotage and espionage.

But the Koppers Co. is virtually alone in this detailed preparation for the grim day.

Not only is industry unprepared Labor has just not been readied for the attack. Union leaders have been called in for policy discussions in the Office of Defense Mobilization and the unions are working with some corporations on attack-day problems.

But virtually no significant section of labor has been trained to go to the few substitute production centers. Outside of some air raid drills, virtually none of the skilled crafts have been trained or rehearsed for swift movements to the shockingly few dispersed plants that do exist

Are we or aren't we in danger of attack?

Martha Wright

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK They say the big city is a place where a country boy can come and, by hard work, earn enough money so he can afford to live in the country again

HAL BOYLE

The saying holds true for country girls, too — for example, Martha Wright.

Martha, a farmer's granddaughter, first learned to sing by crooning barnyard lullabies back in Duvall, Wash She hit the heights here, however, by 'Washing That Man Right Out of Her Hair" through 1,043 performances of 'South Pacific.'

TODAY THE blue-eyed farmgirl with the tousled mop of red-blonde hair who was glad to get $5 for her first radio appearance, now is in the $100,000-a-year-plus bracket

But while she thinks Broadway is a great street to make a living on she agrees with most out-of-towners that it's no place to live for anybody who ever liked to go barefoot She gets her mail at a 10-acre rented country place near Westport Conn

"It was like going back to my childhood" she said the other day during a break in rehearsals for a TV show

"I was raised on a farm, and used to love to ride farm horses. I don't have any horses now, but the place has two swans, a stray pigeon and a couple of black miniature poodles

"No I don't find it lonely. City tensions get me down It is wonderful to be able to read a newspaper and relax—all by yourself

"And I manage to keep busy. I do my own gardening and take care of the yard, too My only romantic interest right now is the power mower at home."

MARTHA HAS retained the typical Westerner's preference for simple informal living She has a breezy dislike for all forms of fuss and ceremony. She drives to and from work herself, and this summer she and her maid will take turns at the wheel on a motor tour to Seattle, where her parents live

"About the only problem I have right now is this darned weight," she said, comfortably forking at a plate of chopped sirloin steak "I don't have to fight weight hard—but sometimes I should fight it harder than I do"

When she has to take off a few pounds, she doesn't resort to pills or capsules She has known little illness in her life and has a healthy person's distrust of medicines

"I don't cut out any of my regular foods not even butter" she said "I just cut down on the amount I suppose it would help if I ate more fruit, but I don't care for it I ate too much green fruit off the trees as a kid, I guess"

MARTHA KNOWS hundreds of songs by heart—"just how many I couldn't say." Her two favorites are "Cock-Eyed Optimism"—even after singing it 1,048 times in "South Pacific" — and "Blue Room"

Many singers are haunted by a nightmare fear they will forget a lyric in the middle of a big musical number.

"I'm scared to death at the start of any performance that I'll fluff a line and sometimes I have," said Martha, smiling. "But if I do, I make up another line and go right on I never panic when I make a boo-boo

"It's a funny thing, but the audience seems to like you better when you make a boo-boo—as long as they see you don't let it throw you They like to see a singer act like a human being."

That's the only way Martha knows how to act

New Defiance Minister Sues For Parsonage

DEFIANCE Ohio (AP)—The Rev. Robert B Weaver, newly assigned pastor of St Paul's Methodist Church here Monday, filed a personal lawsuit against Dr. Joseph C Richards to gain possession of the church parsonage and garage

The suit, filed in the court of Justice of the Peace G J P. Lucys, was the latest move in a church squabble which started when Ohio Area Bishop Hazen G Werner Assigned the Rev Mr Weaver to the Defiance church and assigned Dr Richards to Mr Weaver's former pastorate at 'Circleville The new assignments were made about a month ago

Dr Richards refused to accept the Circleville appointment claimed it meant a $4,000-a-year salary cut for him, resigned as a Methodist minister and was appointed by the Defiance church board as the church's business manager with the provision he retain use of the parsonage for his five-year term.

Mr Weaver's suit did not involve any other church official It declared that since June 23 Dr Richards "has unlawfully and forcibly detained from the plaintiff possession of the premises" It added that on July 7 Dr Richards was served with a written notice to vacate

Justice Lucys has not set a date for hearing

Compromise Is Under Study on Public Housing

House Group Seeking To Qualify Senate's Okay of Ike's Program

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Key members of the House Banking Committee were reported today to be considering a compromise public housing program only for families who lose their homes in the razing of slums

A conference committee seeking to reconcile differences between Senate and House versions of housing legislation was due to turn to the controversial public housing question either today or tomorrow.

House, Senate Differ

President Eisenhower asked Congress for authority to start 35,000 new public housing units a year for the next four years The House refused to grant any new public housing authority, but the Senate voted to give Eisenhower what he wanted

Rep Wolcott (R-Mich), chairman of the House Banking Committee, said in an interview he might go along with a public housing program with "restrictions' He declined to spell these out Wolcott long has been a foe of low-rent public housing

Other persons close to the conference committee said public housing opponents may offer to back a one-year continuation of the program—provided new units are restricted to families dispossessed by slum clearance

Would Settle Program

Senate advocates of public housing said this kind of a restriction would cut the heart out of the program

Another point of difference is a Senate provision designed to guard against the possibility of future "windfall' profits by builders operating with government-insured loans. The House bill contains no such section because allegedly widespread housing irregularities did not come to light until after the House finished work on the housing program.

Windfall profits are defined as the margin between a builder's actual costs and the value of a government-insured loan based on an inflated estimate of construction and other expenses

Heat Interferes With Hospital's Thermometers

GRANITE CITY, Ill (AP)—St. Elizabeth Hospital nurses had trouble keeping their clinical thermometers down below 105 degrees because of the heat here yesterday

The temperature in the hospital rooms was 105 degrees and it was a sweltering 109 3 in nearby St Louis.

A hospital official said the thermometers maintain the temperature of the environment until they are shaken down. She explained an accurate reading could be taken by keeping the thermometer in cool water or alcohol and then putting it quickly into the patient's mouth

One nurse took her thermometer into an air-conditioned room, ran cool water over it and cooled it to 98 degrees but by the time she got back to her patient the thermometer read 105 again.

82nd Airborne Division Stages Dress Review

Army's Elite Outfit Shows Striking Force For Pentagon Officials

FT BRAGG, N C (AP)—The Army massed its elite outfit, the 82nd Airborne Division, for a dress review to show Pentagon officials today a mobile striking force

To the approximate 17,500 men of the famous airborne division, the Army added several thousand supporting troops and some of its newest atomic age weapons, including a six-gun battalion of 280 mm nuclear cannon, two batteries of the "Honest John" heavy rocket weapon and two tank battalions

Top Officials Present

The review and demonstration was set up for top Washington officials invited to Ft Bragg among them Deputy Secretary of Defense Robert B Anderson, Secretary of the Army Robert T Stevens and the Army chief of staff Gen Matthew B Ridgway, the latter a World War II commander of the 82nd Secretary of Defense Wilson canceled plans to attend so he could go to the Detroit funeral of a former associate

Only rarely is a full Army division assembled for a formal review an occasion which takes weeks of planning and days of equipment polishing It takes hours just to parade almost 18,000 men their trucks, jeeps, weapons carriers, tanks and guns past a reviewing point

Demonstration Set

But the Army plans were not confined to a mere formal parade

They scheduled also an actual, capsule demonstration of the 'vertical envelopment' technique of the modern battlefield, assigning a battalion (about 800 men) to stage a parachute drop of troops and heavy equipment

The 82nd Airborne is virtually the only one of eight divisions in the United States at full strength and equipped for going into action immediately With full strength and high mobility, it thus represents virtually the core around which would be deployed to any point in the world in a new and serious emergency

No Polio Cases So Far in Salk Vaccine Trial

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—None of the 16,772 Ohio youngsters taking part in the Salk polio vaccine test in Montgomery and Richland counties has come down with infantile paralysis.

Half the first, second and third graders taking part were given three shots of the vaccine, the others injected with a harmless solution.

Dr. Frederick H. Wentworth, chief of the Division of Communicable Diseases, said the number of polio cases in the state to July 3 was 127, including 13 in Montgomery County and 3 in Richland County.

For the same period last year, the state total was 140, and it was 104 for the year before.

It won't be known until next fall which Ohio children got real vaccine shots.

Shooting

Johnson pursued Richendollar to a nearby farm house owned by B.M. Sellars, where more shooting and fighting took place, Mosier said. Richendollar was wounded three times and Johnson was shot once in the leg in addition to being hit in the jaw with a wooden hat model stand.

Johnson then forced Conners, his stepdaughter's husband, to drive him back to his Marion County farm. He was arrested by a Marion County sheriff's deputy and taken to City Hospital.

Sheriff Mosier said no charges would be filed against Conners, since he did not know of Johnson's plans to shoot Richendollar. Conners told the sheriff that Johnson had come to his home Sunday morning asking him to help find Johnson's wife who had left him. Johnson had accused Richendollar of taking his wife, the sheriff said.

Sheriff Mosier said Mrs. Johnson is reportedly in another state.

Governors

among leaders of the 46th annual Governors Conference here that the President had laid down a challenge to them in the historic controversy over state and federal powers.

Against a backdrop of conference demands that the federal government get out of the road-building business, Vice President Nixon put to the governors at their annual state dinner last night a presidential suggestion for an interstate road program designed to provide transport for 200 million Americans by 1970.

Farm Conservation Projects Approved

Three farm conservation plans totaling 382 acres and an initial conservation agreement for 164 acres were approved at a meeting of the board of supervisors of the Marion County Soil Conservation District Thursday at the Soil Conservation office, 194 S. State St.

Conservation plans approved were those of William S. Guthery of Bowling Green Township, 140 acres; John Price of Richland Township, 75 acres; and Hubert Shelton of Tully Township, 367 acres.

Initial agreement approved was that of Herbert T. Thicken of Waldo Township for 164 acres.

Plans were completed by the board for a pond tour to be held the afternoon of July 28. Farm ponds visited will be those of Carl E. Rider, C. W. Taylor, Perry Seiter, George Alber and John E. Ruth.

GOP Leaders Make Campaign Plans

AN ESTIMATED 35 Republican leaders from the 8th Congressional District discussed the coming campaign with State GOP Chairman Ray Bliss last night at Hotel Harding.

Bliss discussed candidates for various state offices in the fall election and urged voters to go to the polls. He said a light vote is expected since this is a non-presidential election year and urged party leaders to tap the field of new voters who haven't registered as yet.

Among representatives at the meeting were Mrs. Martha Wheatcraft, Galion, and Tennyson Guyer, Findlay. Mrs. Wheatcraft and Guyer were elected 8th District Republican Central Committee woman and committeeman in the May primary.

a Son Tay street corner but others apparently escaped.

Other fights were reported just north of Hung Yen, 25 miles southeast of Hanoi, and through the Sept Pagodes-Luc Nam-Puh Lang Thuong triangle, 35 miles northeast of Hanoi.

North of Hung Yen, rebel guerrilla and French-Vietnamese patrols clashed in small night battles for possession of the supply road from Hanoi.

In each fight, the French spokesman said, The Vietminh were driven off before their demolition units could cut the road. Twenty rebels were killed and 10 captured in the area.

In the air yesterday, French fighters and bombers plastered Vietminh bases north of Hung Yen with more than 120 tons of high explosives. Other planes bombed a string of rebel bases north of the Hanoi-Haiphong supply lifeline.

Marion Bicyclist Injured in Collision

A 7-year-old Marion bicyclist was slightly injured in one of three minor traffic collisions reported today by city police. The state highway patrol and the sheriff's deputies reported no accidents on county highways.

Hurt in the automobile-bike collision was Michael Carter of 919 Uncapher Ave. He suffered bruises on his hand. The collision happened at Uncapher and Keener Aves. at 8:27 p.m. Monday and involved a car driven by Jesse W. Smith, 36, of 1054 Uncapher Ave. He was traveling south on Uncapher and the boy west on Keener.

Of the remaining two collisions one involved total damage of less than $100. The other occurred at N. State and E. Fairground Sts. at 5:40 p.m. Monday. It involved cars driven by Warren C. Hoy, 17, of near Marion and J. W. Honaker, 60, of Gebhardt St., a city employe who was driving a city owned station wagon.

said he had never given her any other gifts.

Assistant County Prosecutor John J. Mahon said he had questioned Dr. Sheppard about his friendship with the woman, and added:

"We intend to go into this further. We intend to talk to the woman about her relationship with Dr. Sheppard."

Break-In Reported At Gasoline Station

Break-in of Pure Oil Co. filling station at N. Main and Mark Sts. was reported to city police this morning by Gerald Walters, operator of the station.

Police reported entrance was gained by breaking out a window on the north side of the building. Inside, a cigaret machine was toppled over on its side and there was evidence an unsuccessful attempt was made to pry it open. Nothing else in the building was disturbed and nothing was reported missing.

Walter discovered the break-in shortly before 7 a.m. this morning when he called police.

Marion Man Arrested On Charge of Assault

A Marion man arrested in Lima Saturday on an assault and battery charge filed against him in Municipal Court pleaded not guilty in court Monday and was ordered held under a $50 bond pending a trial on Thursday.

Steve Lanier, 47, whose former address here was 696 Hocking St., was charged with assaulting Dorothy Mathis of 880 Kenton Ave. in a warrant signed by her husband, Russ Mathis. The affidavit charges the assault took place on April 30.

City police said they had been searching for Lanier since that date until he was arrested Saturday in Lima.

Unable to post the $50 bond, Lanier was committed to the Marion County jail to await trial on the charge.

Traffic Cases

Fines totaling $395 were assessed 11 drivers when they pleaded guilty to various traffic violations in Municipal Court Monday.

Judge W. Dexter Hazen handed out the two stiffest penalties to men, charged with drunken driving and leaving the scene of an accident.

Vernon Hawkins of Green Camp was fined $100 and costs, sentenced to five days in the Marion County jail and his driver's license was suspended for three years when he pleaded guilty to the drunken driving charge.

Charles Davis, 31, of 213 Harrison St. was fined $100 and costs and his driver's license was suspended for three years on the hit-skip driving charge. He was charged as the driver of a car which collided with a parked car in front of 685 N. State St. Saturday night and failing to stop.

Coincidence played a hand in the arrest of a Marion County motorist on two charges of failure to obey an officer's command and a stop sign violation.

Alfred M. Boggess, 37, of near Marion was charged with running a stop sign at the intersection of State Routes 529 and 98 on July 2. He was arrested by Patrolman Donald Lake of the Marion post. In October last year, Boggess was arrested at the same intersection on the same charge by the same patrolman.

In this year's arrest, he was issued a citation to appear in Municipal Court for a hearing and failed to show up, which resulted in issuance of a warrant for his arrest on a charge of failure to obey an officer's command. In Municipal Court Monday he was fined a total of $50 and costs, $25 and costs on each charge.

Other dispositions Monday were:

Reckless driving: Jack Thomas, 20, of Dayton, $15 and costs suspended; Charles R. Thrush, 18, of Toledo, $25 and costs and suspension of his driving rights for 30 days; and H. D. Whitlock, 29, of Center Line, Mich., $15 and costs.

Miscellaneous: Charles D. Burris, 22, of near Marion, no safety chains, $15 and costs suspended; Paul A. Hill, 41, of San Diego, driving left of center, $15 and costs; John E. Laucher, 65, of Prospect, failure to yield the right of way, $15 and costs suspended; Leonard B. Turner, 34, of Lincoln Park, Mich., passing in a no passing zone, $15 and costs; Cecil E. Berry, 22, of near Marion, failure to register motor vehicle, $15 and costs; and William Fabian, 60, of near Marion, two charges, no operator's license and driving left of center, $15 and costs on each charge.

Area Traffic Cases

Three motorists arrested by Marion state highway patrolmen were fined a total of $50 and costs in area courts yesterday.

They were Morris W. Miller, 29, of Middletown, passing at a railroad crossing, fined $10 and costs by Justice of the Peace P. A. Richeson of Cardington; Raymond W. McCormick, 21, of Toledo, speeding, fined $20 and costs by Mayor Harold Koehler of Upper Sandusky; and Glen H Skinner, 27, of near Prospect, speeding, fined $20 and costs by Mayor Koehler.

GIs, Russians Fight Against Vienna Flood

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—American and Russian troops worked within a few hundred yards of each other outside Vienna today in an effort to save a U.S. airfield and two Austrian villages from floods.

The waters of the swollen Danube River, raging downstream after leaving 70,000 homeless in Germany and Western Austria, threatened the U.S. Air Force base at Tulln. Isolated in the Russian occupation zone of Austria, it is 22 miles northwest of Vienna's American sector.

Officials said the airfield was "pretty much out of danger," unless the waters took a big rise.

Floods from the Danube approached within 200 yards of the field, inundating the communities of Tulln and Langenlebarn and flooding a road connecting them with the airfield.

Russian and American troops worked on the road but there reportedly was no actual cooperation between them.

Last night a 3-year-old child fell into the Danube near Vienna and drowned, bringing the total dead reported in Austria and East and West Germany to 28.

Conservative estimates placed property damage at hundreds of millions of dollars.

Bus Firm

He noted that this in effect is a protection for the merchants' past investment in the bus company since it started operations here April 12.

During that three months, the merchants agreed to a proposal of the Springfield City Lines to purchase a total of $50 worth of bus tokens a day in a "share-the-loss" plan with the company.

Cost Shared by 68

The merchants were permitted to use the tokens in any way they pleased and with some 68 businessmen participating, the cost to each ranged from $2.75 a day down to as low as 30 cents a day, based on the volume of business of the individual merchants.

This plan was proposed by the board of directors of the Springfield bus company in negotiations with the city officials and members of the Chamber of Commerce for start of the new bus company here in April. The city was without mass transportation facilities for two months following collapse of the former Marion Transit Co. early in the year.

This "share-the-loss" plan was to be used for a 90-day trial period to determine if a bus company could be profitably operated in Marion.

Would Have Lost $4,000

Pogue said that without the help of the merchants from April 12 through July 12, the company would have lost some $4,000.

The merchants reportedly purchased some $4,500 worth of bus tokens during that period, in accordance with the previous agreement.

The new proposal, while approved by the retail board of managers and promotion committee members Monday, must still be approved by the majority of downtown merchants before it can become effective.

Jack Lautenslager, assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, said that he planned to begin a poll immediately to determine the reaction of the merchants to the plan. He said the poll would either be conducted by telephone contact—in which case the results would be known in a day or two—or by mail ballot which could show the trend of reaction of the merchants in a week, but might not be complete for some three weeks.

No Plans To Quit

In the meantime there is no immediate indication the Springfield City Lines plans to suspend operations here. Lautenslager said the company would doubtless continue its present operations until the reaction of the merchants to the new underwriting plan is known. If it is turned down the company will probably give several days' notice if it decides to discontinue the Marion City Lines division, he said.

Pogue pointed out that in the long run, it will be the number of Marionites who ride the buses who will determine whether the bus company continues in operation or quits. If people refuse to use the buses the company can never hope to operate out of the "red" without help in which case it must discontinue, Pogue said.

While it is not as yet known what the merchants' reaction to the new proposal will be, those attending yesterday's luncheon meeting expressed the feeling that a majority of businessmen will approve the plan.

Fisherman Arrested

A Marion County man was fined $25 and costs in Marion Municipal Court Monday when he pleaded guilty to a charge of violation of state fish and game laws.

John Malone of near Marion was arrested on a charge of fishing without a license by Marion County Game Warden John R. Walters. The fine and costs were suspended by Judge Hazen on condition Malone not violate the fish and game laws again.

mittee of Council to obtain quotations on the probable cost of the printing. If this is to be more than $1,000 the work must be advertised for bids and awarded to the lowest and best bidder, he said.

Placentino added that, in this event, there must be a bid advertisement for two weeks. He suggested that a fairly accurate estimate of the printing costs be obtained and legislation be presented to Council at its next meeting night July 26.

Copies of the charter must be mailed to each registered voter no less than 30 days prior to the November election under terms of Ohio law.

Elmer Shaw estimated that there are between 16,000 and 18,000 registered voters in the city and pointed out that mailing copies of the charter to each one will probably require hand addressing of the envelopes.

Councilman-at-Large Robert G Haldeman asked whose responsibility it is to see that the copies are prepared and mailed. Placentino replied that it is in part the duty of Council to pass legislation to have the issue placed on the ballot and to appropriate funds for printing and mailing, in part the duty of the clerk of Council to obtain the names of all registered voters in the city and send a copy to each one, and in part the duty of the administration.

Councilman Harold Fralich, Sixth Ward, then suggested that the matter be referred to some committee to determine the approximate cost of printing and mailing.

Council President William Slack referred the matter to the Finance Committee to obtain the necessary information and order in appropriate legislation for the July 26 meeting.

or an acceptable substitute. The provision had been tentatively approved Saturday.

Contributing to the reversal were a hurry-up visit to Capitol Hill by Secretary of State Dulles before he departed for diplomatic talks in Paris, and a warning from Gen Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme Allied commander in Europe. Gruenther, telephoning from Europe, termed the Senate version "dangerous," a term Dulles also reportedly had used.

Sen. Wiley (R-Wis), Foreign Relations Committee chairman, said the reversal restored House-approved language which would allow delivery to the two nations of equipment and materials on order from the 1951, 1952 and 1953 foreign aid programs, but will deny them any share in funds from the 1954 and 1955 programs unless they join EDC, a proposed six-nation army including West German troops.

Road, School Cost Too High, Lausche Says

BOLTON LANDING, N. Y. (AP)—Construction costs are pricing schools and roads out of the reach of taxpayers, Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio told the Governors' Conference here yesterday.

He blamed the situation on an Ohio law which he said forces wage payment in rural areas of the state to correspond with wages that prevail in highly industrial, heavily populated areas.

"When we build a road or a public school building in a rural county," he said, "we must pay the wages that prevail in the largest industrial area nearby."

Lausche said the law was adopted because of "pressure and persuasion" but did not comment on any effort to get it repealed.

He said the cost of schools is so high that it cannot be met by some local taxpaying units.

Secretary Stevens Finds McCarthys All Over the Place

SHANNON, Ireland (AP) — U.S. Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens found himself knee deep in McCarthys yesterday when his plane stopped at this international airport en route from Paris to Washington.

The secretary has been touring Army units in West Europe.

Operations officer Charles McCarthy cleared the plane for landing.

At the control tower microphone was Jack McCarthy.

The immigration officer who okayed Stevens to leave the plane was another Jack McCarthy.

The customs officer who learned he had nothing to declare — just passing through — was John McCarthy.

Stevens went to the airport post office to mail some postcards and got his stamps from Tom McCarthy.

Messenger Nick McCarthy took his order for a cup of coffee, and lounge attendant Paddy McCarthy brought it to him.

"I seem," said Stevens, "to be in McCarthy country."

Corn Cobs Catch Fire, Inhalator Run Made

Two calls were reported today by the Marion fire department.

Firemen from Prospect St. station were summoned at 4 p.m. yesterday to the Betty Zane Co. on Bellefontaine Ave to put out a corn cob fire in the bed of a truck. There was no loss.

The inhalator squad was called at 7 35 p.m. yesterday to the Outside Inn on N. Main St. to aid Mrs. A. A VanAtta of Mount Gilead. She had suffered a fainting spell and the inhalator was used on her for 10 minutes before she was removed to Marion City Hospital for further treatment.

Foundation Set Up To Foster 'Ideals' of Taft

WASHINGTON (AP) — A nonprofit organization to "perpetuate the ideals" of the late Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) was founded today, with former President Herbert Hoover as chairman.

The organization, described as nonpolitical, will use its funds for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes. It is called the Robert A. Taft Memorial Foundation, Inc.

A statement announcing that articles of incorporation were filed in Baltimore today said President Eisenhower has agreed to serve as honorary chairman for the first term.

A list of original trustees included high officials of the Eisenhower administration, close friends and associates of the Ohio senator, who died July 31, 1953.

With headquarters in Washington, D. C., the foundation will aid schools, libraries, individuals and publications "to promote the advancement and diffusion of knowledge and understanding."

Speaking for the senator's family, Robert A. Taft Jr. of Cincinnati said he has had several talks with Yale University on the possibility of setting up some sort of memorial at that school. Taft's alma mater.

It was decided, he said, that a specific provision should be set up for Yale in any national fund rather than have a separate fund set up at the school.

The articles of incorporation state that "no part of such funds shall be used to carry on propaganda or otherwise to influence legislation."

Original trustees include Secretary of Agriculture Benson, Sens. Bricker (R-Ohio), Bridges (RN-H), Rep. Clarence Brown (R-Ohio), Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

New Accounting System Set Up at Marion Depot

A commercial type of accounting system is being installed at the Marion Engineer Depot. This stock fund system is part of the Army-wide program designed to maintain stock inventories in terms of dollars, and is being installed in all depots throughout the United States. In connection with setting up the new system, the depot is in need of an accountant, depot officials said.

Walkout Ends At Kyger Creek Power Project

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio (AP)—A dispute between two unions at the nearby Kyger Creek power plant was settled "temporarily" yesterday after 1,300 construction workers had been idle 13 days. Construction was expected to resume with the 8 a. m. shift today.

The AFL operating engineers walked off the job June 30 in a dispute with the AFL electricians over which union was to unload steel for transmission line towers.

The plant is one of two which will supply electricity to the Portsmouth Area atomic energy plant near Waverly. It is scheduled for completion in 1956. The plant is located near Cheshire in Gallia County by the Ohio River.

Fred Carman, resident engineer for the Ohio Valley Electric Corp., did not reveal details of the back-to-work agreement. He said it was a "peaceful, temporary agreement."

Carman said construction at the plant halted completely last Thursday when further work became impossible without the operating engineers. Some workmen had stayed on the job after the walkout.

END STRIKE

CLEVELAND (AP) — The AFL Boilermakers Union ended a strike yesterday against contractors in 19 Northeast Ohio counties and two Northwest Pennsylvania counties. The union and the contractors' association reached a contract agreement providing pay raises of 7½ cents an hour retroactive to June 14 and an additional five cents an hour beginning Nov. 1. The workers, who left their jobs after a breakdown in contract talks May 31, agreed to return today.

Meat and Potato Pie Makes Economical Meal

It is sometimes hard to plan economical dishes for men who like meat and potato meals.

In the recipe given below, these two foods are artfully combined into just such a meal. It requires about one hour to prepare and bake. The crust is made of whipped potatoes and the filling of a tasty beef mixture.

Here's the way it's done:

1 egg, slightly beaten
1 cup milk
Whole wheat flakes
1 pound ground beef
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
⅛ teaspoon thyme
⅛ teaspoon minced sage
½ cup minced onions
3 cups hot, seasoned whipped potatoes

Combine egg, milk and flakes, add meat, seasonings and onions; mix well. Spread evenly in 8-inch round pan or shallow casserole. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 40 minutes or until meat is done and browned on top.

Whip potatoes until light; arrange in border around outer edge of pan. Bake in very hot oven (450 degree F.) or place under broiler until potatoes are thoroughly heated and lightly browned. Cut in wedge shaped pieces to serve. Makes 6 servings.

News of the District

Galion

Carter A. Glass was commissioned second lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force and received a bachelor of arts degree in June from the University of Kentucky. He is now stationed at Bartow Air Base, Fla. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Glass. At the Florida training base he will undergo primary flight training.

Lieut. Glass was unusually active while in college, having served as president of the student body during his senior year as well as being president of his fraternity, Sigma Chi, and the Kentucky U's senior honorary men's society, Lamp and Cross. In his junior year, he was the student member of the university athletic board and vice president of Lances, junior men's honorary society and was treasurer and vice president of the student union society and was treasurer and vice president of the student union board for the two years he was a member.

A Galion girl currently is enjoying a successful season in summer stock. She is Miss Virginia McElroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt C. McElroy. She is appearing with Rudy Vallee in the Ogunquit Playhouse production of "Jenny Kissed Me," which is running this week, July 12-17. The playhouse, situtated on the Atlantic Ocean in the early American village of Ogunquit, Maine, is known as "America's foremost summer theater." This is its 22nd season of operation. She is attending Manhattan Theatre Colony in Ogunquit.

Richwood

Mr. and Mrs. Kelson Southard are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Rebecca Sue Southard, and Richard Monroe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Monroe of Richwood.

The wedding ceremony was read by Rev. Dean E. Speece, minister of the Church of Christ in the church parsonage. Miss Joan Cudd was the bride's only attendant and the bridegroom's best man was Danny Laughrey. Miss Shirley Southard and Miss Kay Southard, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Dean Speece were hostesses at a reception immediately following the ceremony for the couple and their immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe will reside in Richwood.

LIMIT LAWN SPRINKLING

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Columbus gardeners have to look at the calendar as well as the weather before watering their lawns nowadays. The city, trying to cope with a water shortage, has put into effect a residential sprinkling ban. Those who live in houses with even numbers are encouraged to spray their lawns on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Those with odd numbered addresses get their turns on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. On Sundays, it's a free for all.

National League Favored To Win 21st All-Star Tilt

Ford and Roberts To Start Game in Cleveland Stadium

By JOE REICHLER

CLEVELAND (AP)—Willie (The Wallop) Mays and Theodore (The Thumper) Williams, two of baseball's top glamor guys, were not in the starting lineups but both were expected to see plenty of action in today's annual All-Star Game at Cleveland's vast Municipal Stadium.

This was in the nature of promises (or threats) made by National League Manager Walter Alston and his American League counterpart, Casey Stengel, as the rival All-Star pilots discussed the lineups and personnel of their squads on the eve of the 21st midsummer classic.

The Nationals, winners of the last four interleague clashes, ruled a decided 8-5 favorite over the revamped and injury-riddled Americans. But Stengel, in understandably high spirits over his New York Yankees' recent rash of victories, brimmed with confidence that he would win his first All-Star game after four successive failures.

Game time is 1:30 p.m., EDT.

"The other fellows are supposed to have all the home run hitters," he said wolfishly. "What do you think I've got? A bunch of powder puffers?

"I've got a fellow named Williams. Know him? They tell me he's hit a few home runs in his day. . . He'll be in there as soon as the rules permit."

"Mays will be in there at the first opportunity," promised Alston. "I know the fans would like to see him and, for that matter, so would I. It will be nice to have him on my side for a change."

Mays, the New York Giants' sensational outfielder, has banged 9 of his 31 home runs against Alston's Brooklyn Dodgers, including four during the Giants' recent three-game sweep in Brooklyn.

Both Mays and Williams finished second in the nationwide fan poll but there is no doubt they're the "people's choice" among the record 70,000 fans who were expected to watch the All-Star spectacle. Mays was second to Brooklyn's Duke Snider for the starting center field post in the National League. Williams, Boston Red Sox slugger, was runner-up to Chicago's Minnie Minoso for the left field berth in the American League.

"My present plans call for Mays to go to center field in the fourth inning," Alston said. "I believe I'll shift Snider to right field and Stan Musial to left. Jackie Robinson, who will start in left, aggravated a knee injury in Sunday's double-header against Philadelphia and should be rested.

"Shifting Snider for Mays does not mean that I regard Willie the better center fielder. It's just that I think Duke can play right field better. He has played there while Willie hasn't. For that matter I may even keep Snider in center and play Mays in left. I won't make up my mind until the last minute."

Stengel, confident that his pitchers will stop "those other guys from hittin' homers," explained why he selected Eddie Ford, his own southpaw, over a varied assortment of star right-handers.

"I was thinking of starting Mike Garcia of Cleveland," said the grizzled New York Yankee manager. "But at 2 o'clock Sunday I was told he couldn't pitch because of an injured finger. My guy, Allie Reynolds, also couldn't pitch because of an injury. Most of the others worked Sunday and my guy (Ford) pitched only three innings Saturday. And he looked very good by the way.

"I don't see why I couldn't pitch Ford especially with those guys using three left-handers" (Snider, Musial, Ted Kluszewski) in the lineup. He's not afraid of 'em. He's pitched in a couple of World Series, you know. And he won't be tired."

Stengel declined to disclose any more of his pitching plans but he indicated he would use Bob Porterfield, Washington's ace right-hander, in the middle innings and either right-hander Sandy Consuegra of the White Sox or Dean Stone, rookie Washington southpaw, in the final three.

Alston said his pitching and replacement plans depended upon the actions of the American League. He already had named Robin Roberts to start. It was the fourth starting assignment for the Philadelphia Phillies' ace right-hander in the last five All-Star games.

"I'll use my men according to the situation," he said. "And as for the pitchers, it all depends upon how they feel. After all, five of the seven pitched on Sunday. I have to find out just who can come back with so short a rest. I may use only three pitchers. Then again, I may have to use all seven."

The game will be beamed to the nation on radio (Mutual) and television (NBC and Mutual).

Antonelli Tops Loop in Earned Runs, Victories

NEW YORK (AP)—Johnny Antonelli, brilliant lefthander of the New York Giants and one of the seven National League pitchers selected for today's All-Star Game is his circuit's leader in earned run averages.

Antonelli has given up only 34 earned runs in 144 innings for an earned run mark of 2.13; figures compiled by The Associated Press reveal. Johnny also is the league's top hurler in winning percentage (.867) with 13 victories, four of them shutouts, against two setbacks.

In the American League, Mike Garcia of the Cleveland Indians has wrested the lead from Detroit's Ned Garver. Mike was one of Manager Casey Stengel's All-Star selections but bowed out because of a ruptured blood vessel in the middle finger of his throwing hand.

Garcia has permitted only 32 earned runs in 137 frames for a 2.10 mark and Garver 32 tallies in 131 innings for 2.20. The Tribe's fastballer has won 11 games and dropped five while Garver's record is 6-5.

Dodgers' Hodges Receives Fine on Speeding Charge

NEW YORK (AP)—The judge was a Dodger fan but that didn't help Brooklyn first baseman Gil Hodges escape a $50 traffic fine.

Hodges pleaded guilty yesterday to a two-year-old speeding charge. He said he had not appeared earlier because he forgot about the summons served on him April 12, 1952.

"Although I'm a Dodger fan myself, Mr. Hodges reached home plate here much too late," remarked Magistrate James E. LoPiccolo as he fixed the fine at $50.

Current Registers 2 Wins at Hilliards

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—That man from Wilmington did it again.

Twenty-five-year-old Bill Current, scored two more wins last night, giving him a strong edge as top sulky driver at Hilliards Raceway so far this season.

He drove Lord Victory to win in the second, a 25 Class trot, and Sweet Talk in the sixth, a 2-year-old trot. Both were mile events with the sixth offering a $1,000 purse.

Lord Victory paid $7.20 while Sweet Talk paid $6.60. Times were 2:12 in the second and 2:14.4 in the sixth.

Lawyer Talks

Association of Ballplayers Has Constitution, By-Laws

By JACK HAND

CLEVELAND (AP) — The major league baseball players have organized formally into an association with by-laws and a constitution but no dues. J. Norman Lewis, their lawyer, goes out of his way to insist this is no union.

Lewis will receive a reported $30,000 fee for services rendered in helping the players negotiate a new pension contract with the owners. His fee covers work through October 1954.

"There is no definite arrangement for the future after October," said Lewis. "We didn't discuss it. That is something that probably will be decided later."

Lewis' fee will come out of the central fund into which All-Star Game gate receipts and All-Star and World Series radio-television cash is placed. According to Lewis, the owners' committee already has agreed to the payment and the players followed suit yesterday. Pension payments also are paid out of the same central fund.

The 16 current player representatives, one from each big league club will continue in office until July 1955 when a general election will be held. The term of office will be two years. In the past there has been no formal term. Two league player representatives also will be elected for two years in 1955.

There will be four regular meetings of the player representatives, the first week in April, All-Star week, World Series week and the first week in December.

The player representatives have been functioning, without by-laws a positive legal setup, since 1946 after the Mexican League threat when several players "jumped" to Mexico and Robert Murphy, Boston lawyer, tried unsuccessfully to organize a players' union.

To assist in handling the pension fund, Allie Reynolds of the New York Yankees and Ralph Kiner of Chicago Cubs were elected to two-year terms. They will serve on a four-man committee with John Galbreath, Pittsburgh owner, and Hank Greenberg, Cleveland general manager.

A new player pension agreement, by which the pension fund will get 60 per cent and the owners 40 per of the All-Star Game and World Series TV will be drawn up by Lewis and the lawyers of the two majors, Ben Fiery of the American and Lou Carroll of the National. The present pension agreement expires with the end of the radio-TV contracts in 1955.

OSU Football Cards for '57, '58 Completed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State University athletic board announced last night complete bookings for the Bucks' 1957 and 1958 football seasons.

The 1957 season opens at home with OSU playing Texas Christian Sept. 28. On Sept. 27, 1958, Ohio State will open at home against Southern Methodist.

Only once before has Ohio State met TCU. The Bucks upset the Texans, 14-0, at home in 1937.

Twice Ohio State clashed with SMU. The Mustangs took a 32-37 victory in 1950 and lost 7-0 in 1951. Both games were at Ohio Stadium.

Opponents for 1957 also include the University of Washington at Seattle, then seven straight Western Conference games. In 1958, Washington will follow SMU into the home stadium before the Big Ten foes line up—Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Northwestern, Purdue, Iowa and Michigan. That's the order set for both years, the board said.

Athletics Exchange Four With Ottawa Farm Club

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics have exchanged four members of their pitching staff with their Ottawa International League farm club.

The A's called up lefty Johnny Gray and righthander Charley Bishop. Righthanders Bob Trice and Ossie Van Brabant were sent to Ottawa.

Trice requested the change "for more seasoning."

RETRIEVES CADDY

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A golf player, Dick Sprouse, automobile salesman off the course, had to retrieve his caddy. Sprouse tossed his club in the air, in a moment of exasperation over a missed shot. It got caught in a tree. The caddy climbed up and got caught, too, when one leg wedged in a crotch. Sprouse climbed up and made a rescue.

Hurler Ousted For 'Dusting' In Association

By The Associated Press

A pitcher was thrown out of the game in a "dusting off" incident —an unusual occurrence in the American Association—as league-leading Indianapolis beat Minneapolis 7-0 Monday.

Miller pitcher Jim Constable, young lefthander, was the alleged offender. He had battled the Indian ace, Herb Score, to a scoreless standoff until, in the sixth inning, Indianapolis got to him for four runs, climaxed by Hank Foiles homer.

Constable's first pitch to Bob Prentice after the homer knocked Prentice down and Umpire Stan Landes, for the first time known to Twin Cities baseball fans, warned a pitcher against dusting off a batsman.

But the Miller pitcher's next heave struck Prentice in the back of the leg and Landes immediately ejected him.

The victory enabled the Indians to maintain their 8½-game lead over the St. Paul Saints, who were beating Kansas City's Blues, 10-6.

In the night's only other league game, Norm Zauchin's 10th inning single scored Marty Keogh from third to give Louisville a 5-4 victory over the Charleston Senators.

In an exhibition game, the Toledo Sox were whipped by the parent Milwaukee Braves 6-1.

Snider, Noren Lead Baseball Batting Races

NEW YORK (AP)—Outfielders hogged the spotlight in the major league batting races today with Duke Snider of Brooklyn and Irv Noren of the New York Yankees showing the way and several others in contention.

Snider slumped seven points to .367 last week with 11 hits in 35 at bats. Meanwhile outfielders Don Mueller of the Giants and Gus Bell of Cincinnati closed in, Mueller with a three-point increase to .356 and Bell with a four-point gain to .344.

Wally Moon, St. Louis outfielder, is fourth at .333 followed by teammates Red Schoendienst and Stan Musial with .331.

In the American League, Noren took over the top spot from Cleveland's Bobby Avila. Irv gained 15 points to .344 while Avila tailed off nine to .341.

Mickey Mantle of the Yankees is third with .316, followed by Nellie Fox of Chicago .315, and Minnie Minoso of the White Sox and Al Rosen of Cleveland with .313 apiece.

Greenberg Hopeful on Bid For Inter-League Baseball

CLEVELAND (AP)—If today's All-Star Game tops the classic's attendance record of 69,812, General Manager Hank Greenberg of the host Cleveland Indians believes it will perk his proposal for regular season inter-league play. The All-Star crowd record was set here in 1935.

Greenberg will present his plan for inter-league games which count in American and National League standings at the July 26 meeting of club owners in New York.

Manager Casey Stengel of the All-Stars was ribbed by somebody that his club might be able to stave off the Nationals until the Giants Willie Mays got into the game.

Stengel retorted that "we got some pretty good center fielders in our league. You take that Jim Busby fellow of Washington. Mickey Mantle might have hit four home runs in Washington Sunday if that Busby wasn't around."

Manager Lippy Durocher and Vice President Chub Feeney of the rollicking Giants were the most cheerful duo in the All-Star press quarters last night. The Lip had a kind word for everybody, tablehopping and shaking hands.

Willie Mays was visiting the Larry Dobys the eve of the contest they may face as centerfield rivals.

General Manager Frank Lane of the White Sox was beaming after his club's four-game sweep over the Indians, until Art Patterson, Yankee publicitor, tossed a meaningful "thanks" at him.

Bill Veeck reported he "slowly but surely" is making progress in his survey to bring major league baseball to Los Angeles. Veeck said it was unlikely he could come up with any proposal at the New York meeting of club owners July 26.

Buck Newsome, the much-traveled big league pitcher, now is a Baltimore TV commentator. He couldn't remember if he appeared in three or four All-Star games. Ted Kluszewski, slugging Cincinnati first sacker, sat with the player representatives for the first time yesterday. He replaced Grady Hatton as the Redlegs' team spokesman.

The American Leaguers had four starters quite familiar with Cleveland's Municipal Stadium. They were Al Rosen and Bobby Avila, current Tribe members, and Minnie Minoso of the White Sox, and Ray Boone of the Tigers, former Wigwamers.

Patterson Rips Royer in Bout

Former Olympic King Wins Over Frenchman

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson the Olympic middleweight champion, may never win any world titles, but he said today he now considers himself a full-fledged professional.

Young Patterson stopped Jacques Royer at St. Nicholas Arena last night when the former French middleweight king was refused permission to come out for the eighth round. But he was knocked down for the first time in his career.

"It was kind of a funny feeling," said Patterson. "I wasn't hurt, but I sure was surprised. I guess I'm a real pro now."

Except for the first round, when he was down for a six-count, Patterson was in complete command. Royer couldn't keep away from his belts to the head.

At Eastern Parkway Arena, in the other half of the Monday night TV war, Willie Troy of Washington, D.C., the seventh-ranking middleweight contender, stopped Tony Anthony, another New Yorker, in 47 seconds of the fourth round.

This was an unusual one in that all the officials had Anthony ahead going into the fourth. The former national AAU champion didn't run into trouble until the end of the third when he caught a solid right in the mid-section.

He wobbled to his corner and had no defense when he came out for the fourth.

Steve O'Neill, manager of the Philadelphia Phillies, is one of four brothers who played in the major leagues.

Columbus Miss Faces Veteran In Tournament

15-Year-Old To Play Former Champion in Women's Golf Match

CINCINNATI (AP)—Claire Doran of Cleveland still was rated as the gal to beat in the Ohio Women's Golf tournament but the sentimental interest in today's first round of match play was a match between Mrs. Burt Weil of Cincinnati and Margaret Barton of Columbus.

Mrs. Weil is one of three former champions in the field. But when she won the title, back in 1933-34-35, Miss Barton hadn't even been born.

The Columbus miss is only 15 years old.

Mrs. Weil qualified yesterday with an 82, well off the game she figures to shoot over her home Losantiville course. Miss Barton qualified with an 85.

Miss doran took the qualifying medal. She did it with a one-over-par 76, which left her a mere stroke ahead of Miss Carol Diringer of Tiffin, who had a 77. Miss Diringer, the 1951 winner, has been second to Miss Doran the last two years.

Only four players were able to break 80.

Miss Doran and Miss Diringer were followed by Miss Betty Kerby of Akron, with a 78; and Miss Jean Hopkins of Cleveland, with a 79.

Match play will continue through Friday when the last two survivors will meet over the 36 hole route for the title.

Trinity Team, Brethren Win Church Games

Church of the Brethren and Trinity were winners last night in city softball action at Garfield Park.

In the Church League activity, Church of the Brethren notched a 5-4 victory over St. Mary and Trinity trimmed Greenwood, 4-2.

Williams hurled Church of the Brethren to the win over St. Mary, giving up nine hits. Morris of the losers was only touched for four. A seventh inning home run by D. Ballenger won the tilt.

St. Mary had piled up a 4-0 advantage in the first three frames on a run in the second and three in the third but the winners came back with three in the fourth. They added one in the sixth and the winning run in the final frame. R. Robbins had three hits for the losers while Morris had two.

Two runs in the bottom of the sixth gave Trinity its margin over Greenwood. Riddle drove in both runs when he singled after Bud England led off the frame by reaching first on an error and Gorby had singled.

Greenwood failed to hit in the clutch as they left nine men stranded on the base paths. Trinity left six on base.

The losers scored both their runs in the fifth while Trinity was scoring once in the first and once in the fifth. Trimmer was the winning hurler, giving up only four hits while striking out eight. Donaugh of the losers was tapped for five hits by Trinity.

LaRue Defeats Marion Police

Marion's Fraternal Order of Police went down to a 3-2 defeat at the hands of LaRue in a Marion County Teen League contest there last night.

Three runs in the third frame were the margin of victory. Two walks, a hit, and an error figured in the scoring.

Hickman hurled LaRue to the win although he was tapped for six hits, three more than LaRue got. Hickman fanned five and walked one.

The loser was Butch Simpson, who was reached for hits in the third, fourth and fifth frames. He struck out 12 while walking 11.

The losers netted their first run in the first and second one in the fourth.

Messner had a triple and double to lead the Fraternal Order of Police hitting attack. Barrett added a pair of doubles to the losers' offense while Ellwood and Simpson collected the other Marion safeties.

Herrick had two of LaRue's three hits and Isom the other.

Harpster Notches Mid-Ohio Victory

Harpster downed Marseilles, 4-3, Sunday on the loser's field for its third straight Mid-Ohio Baseball League win.

R. Snyder and Althouse hurled for the winning Harpster club, giving up five hits to Marseilles. Harpster got six off Bower and Swavel of Marseilles.

Two runs in each of the fourth and fifth frames proved to be Harpster's winning margin. Marseilles scored twice in the fifth and once in the seventh.

Harpster will meet Forest at Harpster this Sunday.

Birdie Tebbetts, manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs, is a licensed insurance agent and broker.

FROM ONE CASUALTY TO ANOTHER. Big Gus Zernial, Philadelphia Athletics' outfielder, in a hospital bed in Philadelphia after his collar bone was broken in a game with the Boston Red Sox, takes time to autograph the sling of little Tommy Fox, 3, whose arm was broken in a mishap which sent him to the same hospital. Zernial may be lost to the A's for the remainder of the season. He was injured when he fell while attempting a shoestring catch.

Engineers' Depot Paces Industrial Golf Competition

Second-round play in the Marion Industrial Golf League got underway yesterday with the Marion Engineer Depot No. 1 team getting off to a fast start.

It downed Gulf Refining, 8-0, to jump into first in the standings. American Legion Post 162 downed the Erie Railroad team, 7-1, to grab second spot.

In other action yesterday, Marion Industries defeated Marion Engineer Depot No. 2, 5½ to 2½; B. F. Goodrich trimmed Marion Power Shovel, 6-2; and Tecumseh Products edged Marion Engineer Depot No. 3, 4½ to 3½.

Low net scores were 31's by L. Ralston and E. Snyder and 32's by R. Dutt, R. Tuttle, B. Caldwell and W. Galyk.

Standings after the opening second round session look like this: Marion Engineer Depot No. 1, 8-0; American Legion Post 162, 7-1; B. F. Goodrich, 6-2; Marion Industries, 5½-2½; Tecumseh Products, 4½-3½; Marion Engineer Depot No. 3, 3.3½-4½; Marion Engineer Depot No. 2, 2½-5½; Marion Power Shovel, 2-6; Erie Railroad, 1-7; and Gulf Refining, 0-8.

Scientists believe that part of the explanation for the twinkling of stars can be found in normal movements of the human eye.

Isaly's Nine, Bankers Win In Little Loop

Isaly and National City Bank were victorious last night in Little League action at Robert Scott Field.

The American League champ, Isaly, edged Goodyear, 9-8, following National City Bank's 11-3 win over Marion County Bank.

Jim Hindman gave up only one hit, that in the opening frame, in hurling National City Bank to its win. The losers collected their only runs off him in the first two frames—one in the first and two in the second—as Hindman picked up his fifth win compared to four losses. He struck out 10 while walking six and hitting three batsmen.

The loser was J. Moody, whose record now reads 2-2. He was relieved by Craft in the fifth. The winners combed the pair of hurlers for 11 hits and a run in the first, frames and two in the fifth. The County Bank hurlers were credited with nine strikeouts and they walked five.

Larry Combs, Pete Porietas and Don Kerns all had three hits to pace the winners. One of Porietas' safeties was his fourth home run of the season. L. Sims collected the lone County Bank hit.

Isaly scored most of its runs early and then held on for its win over Goodyear. The winners got two markers in the opening frame and then added six in the second inning for an 8-0 lead.

A run in the fourth proved to be the deciding margin as Goodyear's rally in the last two frames fell short. Three runs were netted in each of the fifth and sixth innings following one each in the third and fourth.

C. Paulus, who was relieved by G. Dulin in the sixth, took the win, his second against no setbacks. The pair of hurlers were touched for 11 hits while fanning three and walking four.

Losing hurler was Dwight Whetro, who went the route to absorb his third loss of the year against four wins. He was touched for nine hits and fanned four.

L. Ishida led the Isaly attack by socking a pair of homers, his first and second of the season. R. Leedom also had two hits, a pair of doubles, for the winners. Pete Sykes with three hits and Larry Aldrich with two were the top Goodyear hitters.

G and G, Clark Clubs Triumph In Pony Loop

G & G Homes upended Alloy 7-5, and Clark Metal defeated VFW, 10-4 in Pony League action last night at Lincoln Park.

Scoring early, G & G Homes withstood a four-run rally by Alloy in the fifth for the triumph. The winners notched two runs in the second, three in the third and two in the fourth off the slants of Ambrose.

Both hurlers gave up eight hits. Lister struck out 10 Alloy hitters while walking one and Ambrose fanned five and walked two.

Anderson had two hits, including a home run, to pace the winners' hits for Alloy.

Klingel hurled a four-hitter in pitching Clark Metal to its win over VFW.

He was touched for a run in the first, a run in the second and two in the seventh as he struckout 11 VFW batters. He walked four and hit a batter. The loser was Hough, who permitted 10 hits as Clark scored twice in the first, fourth, once in the fifth and four times in the sixth. Hough fanned seven and walked five.

Watts had three hits for the winners while Morbitt and Lindsay added two apiece. Other Clark Metal hits were netted by Penry, Lemaster and Boyd. Grace had three hits for the losers and Remmy one.

Both the highest point on the U.S. mainland, Mt. Whitney, 14,495 feet and the lowest, 282 feet below sea level in Death Valley, are in California.

Play at Toledo

Wide Open Battle Expected For Amateur Championship

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A wide open scrap for medal honors was on tap today as a field of 153 started down the stretch in the 36-hole qualifier for the 48th Ohio Amateur Golf Championship.

After yesterday's 18-hole opening round, a dozen players were grouped within a four shot spread. And any of them could sneak under the wire as the 36-hole victor as the simon-pures name 63 qualifiers for match play after today's round.

Youngstown strode to the fore in the opening jaunt over Sylvania Country Club's 6,518-yard par 72 course, a hilly layout dotted with forests and criss-crossed by streams.

Fred (Rick) Jones, 20-year-old Ohio State sophomore from Youngstown, was the only one in the field able to match par and he hit it on the nose by taking a bogey on the final hole.

On his heels, with 73, were two other Youngstownites and Dr. John Lorms of Troy, the 1945 National Intercollegiate champion. Jones' fellow-townsmen were Norman Purucker, a public links star, and Jack Thompson Jr., son of a golf professional.

Defending champion Arnold Palmer, the Cleveland Coast Guardsman, fired a just-for-fun 74. He qualifies automatically for match play running through Saturday, and passed up the fight for the medal. His 74 was tied by George Smith Jr., of Dayton, who with Jones helped Ohio State win the 1954 Big Ten title, and Bob Barton of Columbus, a member of Yale's varsity.

Heavy winds hampered the scorers yesterday, and indications were a total of 160 or 161 strokes would be good enough to qualify for the man-to-man rounds. Only 46 of the 153 were able to break 80.

Of the 16 public links entries, only a half-dozen or so were expected to qualify. No fee course entrant has ever taken the big prize. This year the best of the Buckeye pay-as-you-go group are playing in the National Public Links event in Dallas, Tex.

Marengo, Settlement, Nevada Lose Games

Bucyrus, New Washington and Mansfield Taverns were winners Sunday in North Central Ohio Baseball League activity.

Bucyrus humbled Marengo, 11-8, Washington trimmed South Settlement, 6-3, and Mansfield Taverns blanked Nevada, 9-0.

KILLED IN CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND (AP)—William Tinkhoff, 46, was killed last night when his car struck a tree on Brookpark Rd. Tinkhoff was manager of the Mayfield Country Club.

Columbus Golfer Scores First Ace On Marion Links

First hole-in-one of the year here has been reported by Ray Augenstein, manager of the Mar-O-Del Golf Course.

N. L. Corder of 33 N. Grubb St., Columbus, made the rare shot yesterday while playing with K. S. Abbott of the Abbott TV and Appliance Store.

Corder made the hole-in-one on the 161-yard, No. 2 hole. He used a No. 7 iron as he played the course here for the first time.

GIMBEL'S OFFICIAL DIES

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—Edward J. Priddey, 71, director of public relations for Gimbels Department Store in Pittsburgh, died yesterday at his summer home at nearby Diamond.

Smith Clinic Signs Contracts For New Building on Route 23

Signing of contracts for construction of a new $240,000 Smith Clinic building just south of the city limits on State Route 23 was slated for completion today.

Dr. Frederick Smith said that three local contractors and a Cleveland firm were awarded the contracts.

The contractors are Marion Contracting Co. for the general contracting; Reliable Plumbing and Heating for plumbing and sewage and heating and air conditioning; Vaughan Electric for the electrical contracting, and the Mills Co. of Cleveland for installation of removable steel partitions.

Groundbreaking Slated

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new building are tentatively planned for Wednesday with completion of the building expected in about 10 months.

Designed by the Marion architectural firm of Edwards and Burris, the building will be located on property now owned by the Smith Clinic and occupied by the Clinic Annex. It is located just south of the Harding Memorial on the east side of Route 23 opposite the Mar-O-Del Golf course.

Designed as a two-story structure, the building will be completely air-conditioned and will contain some 16,500 square feet of floor space, according to James Burris, architect. It will be 66 feet wide and 140 feet long.

This will provide the clinic with about twice the amount of floor space now available in the clinic building on E. Church St. and at the annex.

Brick and Concrete

The new building will be of modern design and of brick and concrete fire proof construction. The materials will be similar to those used in construction of the new Marion General Hospital.

As for the present building on E. Church St., Dr. Smith said there were no definite plans for its future other than that it is not needed by the clinic and will be available for lease purposes. Beyond this point no decision has been made regarding its use, he said.

NOTE 62nd ANNIVERSARY

BUCYRUS—Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Garver quietly observed their 62nd wedding anniversary at their home here Saturday. Mrs. Garver is the former Kate Maloney. Mr. Garver retired in 1928 as a construction foreman for the Erie Railroad. They have a son, C. A., a dispatcher for the New York Central Railroad in Columbus. Both Mr. and Mrs. Garver are in fairly good health.

Prospect Band Parents Plan Festival Saturday

Annual festival sponsored by the Prospect Band Parents organization has been set for Saturday night at the Prospect Village School.

A variety of entertainment has been arranged to follow a supper, including roller skating on the new black topped area at the school, and an hour long concert by the school band beginning at 8 o'clock. Square dancing to the music of the Chuck Wagon Pals will follow.

Strikers Enjoined Against Blocking Pike Construction

BRYAN, Ohio (AP) — Striking drivers and warehousemen here yesterday were ordered by common pleas court not to interfere with delivery of materials for Ohio Turnpike construction in Williams County.

Judge Russell Maxwell granted a temporary injunction to stop striking union members from threatening or attempting to halt truck drivers hauling material into the county.

The injunction was issued against members of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers, AFL. It was asked by South Michigan Materials, Inc., of Ranson, Mich., and Northwest Materials, Inc., of near Pioneer, Ohio, who furnish sand and gravel for construction.

The strikers went out July 1. They ask an hourly wage increase instead of pay on the basis of weight hauled.

As a rule we are opposed to censorship of the stage, but when a play comes along in which a youth of just our age is referred to as middle-aged somebody ought to step in and stop it from being shown to the general public.

FINDS SKELETON

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (AP) — A patient walking away from the Cambridge State Hospital yesterday found the skeleton of another inmate who walked away April 20. Dr. Arthur Hopwood, hospital superintendent, identified the skeleton, by its clothing, as that of Chester Scyoc, 39, who was admitted in 1951 from Monroe County.

General Telephone Stock Offered by New York Brokers

A new issue of 60,000 shares of $1.25 cumulative preferred stock, no par value, of General Telephone Co. of Ohio at $25 per share was placed on the market today by a group of stock brokers headed by Paine, Webber, Jackson and Curtis and the Stone and Webster Corp. of New York.

The new preferred is redeemable at $26.25 per share through June 30, 1959 and $25.75 thereafter, plus accrued dividends.

Proceeds of the new issue will be used to repay bank loans and to make additions and improvements to the telephone plant. The company has also sold to its parent company, General Telephone System, 160,000 shares of no par value common stock, in payment of $800,000 advances. The bank loans had been incurred for construction purposes.

The telephone company is an operating company in the General Telephone System, and provides telephone service, without competition, in 135 exchanges in Ohio. Its headquarters are in Marion.

For the 12 months ended April 30, 1954 the company had total operating revenues of 8,419,486 and net income of $1,011,862.

Cussins & Fearn Plan Warehouse in Columbus

A $500,000 Cussins and Fearn Co. warehouse will be erected in Columbus at 3636 Indianola Ave. between now and the first of the year, the company announced today.

Plans also include future expansion at the site with a retail outlet and offices. Announcement of the construction plans on the 10-acre site were made by R. F. Wunderlich, president of the firm.

The building will be a one-floor, masonry, 300 by 350 foot structure and will be designed to provide for a future addition of general offices and a retail store.

The company currently operates 40 retail outlets within 125 miles of Columbus. Three new stores will open by Aug. 15.

Derby Racer Inspection To Be Held Wednesday

Final inspection of all soap box derby racers is scheduled Wednesday.

Derby officials today announced that the inspection would be held at Garfield Park tomorrow beginning at 1:30 p.m.

All racers must be completed by inspection time tomorrow, Marion derby officials stressed.

The derby is scheduled Saturday, July 17. Boys and their racers are to be at the track on the S. Main St. hill no later than 8 a.m. that morning for test runs. The race will be held Saturday afternoon.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—Active and higher railroads pointed the stock market ahead today in the early afternoon.

While gains went to around 2 points at the best, they were counterbalanced to a certain degree by losses that in cases went to between 1 and 2 points.

Trading was brisk, especially in the first hour, and volume hit a pace right around yesterday's 2,330,000 shares.

Railroads, together with several other major divisions, displayed early advancing tendencies. In the second hour, the rails became much more lively and stepped ahead in heavy trading. The pace slackened later, but prices held well.

Also ahead were the steels, aircrafts, radio-televisions, and movie issues. There were no sharply depressed sections, but minus signs were shown in motors, rubbers, coppers, chemicals, electrical equipments, and oils.

Higher stocks included Seaboard Railroad, Great Northern, New York Central, Southern Railway, Northern Pacific, RKO Theatres, 20th Century-Fox, Burlington Mills, U. S. Steel, North American Aviation, and Radio Corp.

Lower were Deep Rock Oil, American Telephone, Lone Star Gas (including a block of 10,100 shares off ¼ at 25⅜), General Electric, Pacific Mills, Chrysler, Goodrich, and American Tobacco.

NO DOUBT OF NUTRITION
Jane Parker White Bread is ENRICHED for better nutrition, like all modern breads.
The complete list of health-giving nutrients, including generous amounts of Sunshine Vitamin D and healthful calcium, proves that penny for penny Jane Parker gives you more vitamins, calcium, iron and protein than any other of America's 10 leading brands!

NO DOUBT OF FRESHNESS
"Squeezing" may fool you because softness is not a true test of freshness. But with Jane Parker Bread there's no need to "squeeze", no need to guess – just look at the date!
The date on the wrapper is your guarantee of "proven-fresh" flavor. This is important because when freshness fades, flavor fades.

NO DOUBT OF VALUE
Maybe you don't quibble about pennies when it's quality you want. Fine. But why pay more than you have to?
Jane Parker makes no exaggerated claims, uses no secret formula. Its goodness and high nutritional value springs only from the use of fine ingredients, properly blended and baked.
Try Jane Parker Bread – double your money back if you don't agree it's your best bread value!

Stolen Money Taxable, U.S. Court Decides

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Embezzled funds are subject to income tax under terms of a ruling by the U.S. Court of Appeals.

The court made the ruling yesterday in upholding the conviction of Arthur B. Marienfield of St. Louis, former president of the Mar Meat Co. He was sentenced to 15 months in prison and fined $5,000 in Federal District Court last year after being convicted for evading $23,968 in income taxes for 1946.

In his appeal, Marienfield contended the money which the government claimed was income and was used by him, actually belonged to the firm.

Appeals Court Judge Harvey M. Johnsen wrote:

"One who acquires funds by criminal means and uses them for his own purposes has no less measure of economic gain, value and enjoyment from them than the law-abiding citizen."

Chesterville Village Homecoming Set

MOUNT GILEAD — Plans for a three-day homecoming in the Chesterville community on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 22, 23 and 24 are nearing completion, according to Bruce Levering, president of the Chesterville Boosters Club, sponsors of the event.

Levering is being assisted by Jim Denman in making plans for the homecoming. Proceeds from the event will be used to financ the installation of lights and erect seats at the school athletic field.

Thursday night will be amateur night. On Friday night, an all-star wrestling show arranged by Columbus promoter, Al Haft has been planned. On the bill are Frankie Talaber, Eddie Gossett, Al Kashey, Joe Scarpello and two girl wrestlers to be named later. Wrestling matches will be held in the high school auditorium.

A lawn fete is planned for Saturday night and will be followed by a square dance.

Police Seeking Owner Of Huge American Flag

BALTIMORE (AP)—Police here are looking for the owner of a giant-size American flag found along the Western Maryland Railway tracks by 13-year-old Myron J. Levy.

The flag is 12 feet high.

If the owner doesn't show up today, police plan to give it to Ft. McHenry, off whose shores the "Star Spangled Banner" was written by Francis Scott Key.

Big Jack Johnson, heavyweight boxing champion from 1908 to 1915, was nicknamed "Lil Arthur."

'PROVISIONAL' DIVISION OF TRIESTE. This map illustrates a so-called "provisional" division of the Free Territory of Trieste, between Yugoslavia and Italy, which is expected within a few days. In brief, the compromise provides that Italy will take over Zone A, 86 square miles with a population of 300,000, including the port of Trieste. Yugoslavia will finalize her control over Zone B, farming hinterland with 750,000 population and 119 square miles, with an undisclosed number of millions of American dollars to help develop a port at Capodistria (underlined).

Curfew on Barking Dogs Relaxed by City Council

WATERTOWN, N.Y., (AP)—A barking dog's life, the City Council says, can begin an hour earlier each morning.

The Council voted last night to amend a recent ordinance that stipulated that dogs "are not permitted to howl or bark between the hours of 11 p.m. and 8 a.m. so as to disturb the neighbors."

Yielding slightly to the protests of dog owners who had trouble convincing their pets, the councilmen moved the morning curfew back to 7 a.m.

Scholarships Given Morrow Countians

MOUNT GILEAD — Official notification has been received by Morrow County Superintendent of Schools T. A. Gantz that three Morrow County School graduates of 1954 had been officially notified that their teaching scholarships were approved.

The three are: Donna Fae Thompson of Sparta, and Barbara Jean Mitchell and Barbara Lou Neptune of Mount Gilead. The three had been previously approved by a county scholarship selection committee.

Scholarships, as provided by the state legislature, are good for $500 for each of two years. Those receiving them must teach two years in an Ohio school upon completion of their training. Gantz said that the county has been allowed an additional scholarship and may be allowed yet another.

Among the eligible colleges that the scholarship recipients may attend are: Ashland, Bluffton, Bowling Green, Capital, Defiance, Kent State, Miami, Muskingum, Ohio Northern, Ohio University and Otterbein.

CHECK BOUNCES

STEVE CANYON By Milton Caniff

OH, HIZ OLSON, COL. CANYON PHONED... HE ASKED FOR YOU, BUT HE LEFT NO MESSAGE... HE SOUNDED SO UPSET I COULDN'T GO BACK TO SLEEP...
MEENA—I TOLD YOU NOT TO WAIT UP FOR ME...
YOU LETTIN' THAT BIG, BEAUTIFUL, YELLOW-HAIRED CAT SWEAT?
HE SHOWS UP ONCE A YEAR, AND WE FIGHT FROM THE TIME HE KISSES ME HELLO 'TIL HE STOMPS OFF TO ROAR AWAY IN AN AIRPLANE TO TIMBUCTU OR SOMEPLACE!
IT WOULD BE LIKE THAT IF WE GOT MARRIED —EXCEPT THAT I WOULD BE WORRYING MYSELF SICK EVERY DAY ABOUT HIS FLYING! I WENT THROUGH THAT ONCE! I COULDN'T STAND IT AGAIN!
YOU DON'T KNOW HOW GOOD THE WATER IS 'TIL THE WELL RUNS DRY!... YOU NEVER MISS YOUR GOOD MAN 'TIL HE SAY GOODBYE!

Philadelphia's Show Exhibits Children's Art

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—A Children's International Art Exhibition and Crusade for Peace — which will be circulated around the world —will be opened in historic Independence Square.

The exhibition will be held outdoors in a section of the square directly behind Independence Hall. Prominent national and international personalities have been invited to speak.

Included in the exhibition will be paintings from the United Nations Children's International School, a collection of the art of American Indian children and a special all-American children's exhibit which will function as a cultural interexchange and "thank you exhibition" to be sent to countries contributing paintings and drawings to the international affair.

The collection has been assembled over a period of years by D. Roy Miller, director of the Children's United World Foundation Thus far, 80 countries are participating in the exhibit.

The exhibition will be non-competitive Its purpose will be to show how children throughout the world work, live, build, think and play, rather than to show individual talents.

Miller described the exhibition as a visual document of children and an unparalled concrete expression of the underlying basic unity found in children everywhere in the world.

"If we can teach children to know each other today," he said, "we will have given understanding to the adults of tomorrow, the leaders of the future, who shall formulate our policies in education, business, government, and all cultural fields"

The paintings of American children wishing to contribute their work to the exhibition will be preselected by local art groups, museums or schools, which in turn will send them to the Children's United World Art Foundation here

NATURE'S ENEMIES

LINTON, Ind. (UP) — Asa Fish told the Linton Daily Citizen editors he was sitting on a porch at his home watching a cat toying with a mouse it had caught. A bird flew into the yard, and the cat deserted the mouse and pounced on the bird. The mouse scampered away, but an owl flew down and caught it and flew away with the mouse in its beak.

DEATHS and FUNERALS

Mrs. Arthur C. Ulery

Mrs. Ruth E. Ulery, 54, wife of Arthur C. Ulery of 157 Canby Ct., died at 12:15 a.m. today in City Hospital. She was ill only a few hours.

Born June 8, 1900, in Morrow County, she was a daughter of Leslie and Maggie Reimer Thornberg. Her marriage was Sept. 26, 1917, at Kenton.

Surviving with her husband are her father who lives at Westfield in Morrow County; and three children, Charles A. of Los Angeles, Calif., Carl W. of 146 Carhart St. in Marion, and Robert E. of 275 Kenmore Ave.; six grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Roland Alexander of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Guy Ganson of Spencer St. in Marion; and two half-sisters, Mrs. Vertel Scott of Toledo, and Mrs. S. E. Frey of California. A half-brother preceded her in death.

The body was removed to the M. H. Gunder Sons Funeral Home on W. Center St. where friends may call after 7:30 tomorrow night. Funeral arrangements are awaiting word from the son in California.

Mrs. Leland Brown

Mrs. Leland Brown, 69, native of LaRue, died in her home at Lorain yesterday. She was seriously ill five weeks.

Born April 17, 1885, she was a daughter of Thomas and Molly Thornberg Leonard.

Surviving are her son, Walberg Brown, a former Marion musician; and two sisters, Mrs. B. M. Sager of Woodrow Ave. in Marion, and Mrs. Ethel Wise of Morral.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at a Lorain funeral home, and burial will be at Lorain.

Orley W. Ellis

UPPER SANDUSKY — Orley W. Ellis, 89, a retired farmer and lifetime resident of Wyandot County, died at 5:30 a.m. Sunday at his Crane Township home near Upper Sandusky. In failing health the past year, he was seriously ill three weeks.

Mr. Ellis was born in Tymochtee Township, Wyandot County, Sept. 11, 1864, to Elias and Sarah Jane Walton Ellis. He was united in marriage with Daisy Case in September of 1887 at the home of the bride's parents in Eden Township, Wyandot County. She died Aug. 11, 1941.

Surviving children are: Kenneth Ellis, of Blissfield, Mich., Gilbert Ellis, Upper Sandusky; Mrs. Florence Walter, Upper Sandusky; Mrs. Gail E. Bardon, Upper Sandusky; Paul W. Ellis, Lakeview, and Mrs. Anabelle Bahlinger, of Balboa Beach, Calif.

Also surviving are 10 grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren and a brother Frank J. Ellis, of Eden Township.

Mr. Ellis served two terms as Wyandot County treasurer and was a Democratic central committeeman for many years.

Services from the Bringman & Co. Funeral Home in Upper Sandusky will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday with burial in Pleasant Ridge Cemetery, near Sycamore.

Arthur C. Mollencop

BUCYRUS — Arthur C. Mollencop, 79, died at 7:45 a.m. today in Bucyrus City Hospital. He suffered a stroke Saturday morning. For the last year he had made his home with a daughter, Mrs. W. H. Steele, in Bucyrus.

Born May 24, 1875, in Bucyrus, he was the son of Abraham and Mary Guinther Mollencop. Nov. 24, 1898, he married Louise Schieber who died July 17, 1942. In 1951, he retired after 23 years as an employe of the Swan Rubber Co. He was a member of First Methodist Church and of the K of P Lodge.

Surviving with Mrs. Steele are another daughter, Mrs. Harold G. McMichael of near Bucyrus; and a sister, Mrs. O. B. Baker of Bucyrus.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 2:30 p.m. in the Wise Funeral Home. Rev. Glenn Lockard will officiate. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home tomorrow night.

Mrs. William H. Guthrie

UPPER SANDUSKY — Mrs. Mertie Blanche Guthrie, 73, wife of William H. Guthrie, died at 5:30 a.m. Monday at her home here following a six months' illness.

A lifetime resident of Wyandot County, Mrs. Guthrie was born near here, Nov. 10, 1880, to James Lafayette and Martha Jane Holloway Gilliland. She was united in marriage with William H. Guthrie, March 14, 1900. He survives.

Surviving with the husband are two sons, Howard and Paul, both of Upper Sandusky; two daughters, Mrs. Gladys McClain, Upper Sandusky and Mrs. Helen Holl, Cleveland; and six grandchildren.

Mrs. Guthrie was a member of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, the Mizpah Class of the Sunday School, Woman's Society of World Service and the WCTU.

Funeral services from the Evangelical United Brethren Church will be at 2 p.m. Thursday with Rev. W. A. Tabbert officiating. Burial will be made in Old Mission Cemetery. Friends may call at the Bringman & Co. Funeral Home after 4 p.m. Wednesday and until noon Thursday.

Area Residents Attend Funeral in New Mexico

BUCYRUS — Services were held Monday in Las Cruces, N. Mex., for Mr. and Mrs. Gilber Garcia, relatives of Crawford County residents, who were killed in an auto accident Saturday in New Mexico.

Mrs. Garcia was the former Pauline Kurtz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Kurtz, Las Cruces, former county residents. Critically injured in the crash was another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz, Alice.

Among those attending the services were Mrs. Emma Kurtz, Galion, Mrs. Garcia's grandmother, and Mrs. Garcia's uncles, Guerney Snyder, Marion County, and Kenneth Snyder, Whetstone. Mrs. Garcia's grandmother, Mrs. C. R. Snyder, of Whetstone, died July 2.

Rail Industry's Leaders Favor Pony Streamliners

By ED MORSE
(For Sam Dawson)

NEW YORK (AP) — Chances are you'll be riding an ultra-modern lightweight train one of these days. It's a new thrill in railroading.

It's also supposed to thrill the railroad budget-balancers with its vast economies and revenue-pulling power. It's cheaper to build, cheaper to operate, and faster.

These trains of the future are aimed at just one thing: Slaying the dragon that has menaced the railroad industry so long—chronic passenger deficits.

To do that, they'll have to fascinate you—attract your patronage by their speed, convenience and easiness on your bankroll.

They'll have to sell you on the idea that it's smarter to take a trip by train than to pack your family into the car and bull your way through congested and perilous highways. For the railroad's top rival in the passenger business is the family car.

The railroads must wake up and revamp their passenger service according to the facts of life in this motor and airplane age, according to Patrick B. McGinnis, new head of the New York, New Haven Hartford RR.

By all means use your car, says McGinnis. But for a sizeable trip—say the 22 miles between New York and Boston—drive it to a suburban railroad station of a type he envisions with a huge parking lot. Park your car. Ride the train in comfort to a similar station outside Boston on a swift, modern, low-slung, lightweight, train.

This way, he says, you'll make the trip in 2½ hours instead of the four hours now required between the huge city terminals—and you can't park your car at those terminals.

Robert R. Young, now boss of the New York Central, for years has crusaded for revolutionary, lightweight passenger train. While he headed the Chesapeake & Ohio he demonstrated what he called "Train X," a one-car experimental unit made by Pullman - Standard Car Manufacturing Co.

ACF INDUSTRIES INC. made a similar train called the Talgo which has been operating for five years between Madrid and the French border.

It was a counterpart of this train that ACF has been showing these past weeks on the New Haven Railroad. It recently had a 157-mile demonstration run between New Haven, Conn. and Boston. During the trip McGinnis said this Talgo was just a "prototype" of a much-improved train he wants.

Because the Talgo floor is two feet lower than a standard train's, you merely take a normal step from a near-ground-level station platform. You enter an interior much wider and lower-ceilinged than a standard car. It seems more like an airplane. You sink into an airplane-type reclining seat.

As the train starts the ride seems rocky and noisy but McGinnis reminds you that this is "only a prototype," has no sound insulation and that other kinks will be ironed out.

The train accelerates easily. The faster you go the smoother it rides. It saves time taking curves at 87 miles per hour whereas the regular speed limit is 70. On a straight run it hits a peak of 102.8 miles per hour on a road where the legal limit is 79. The ride is steady and sure.

THROUGH THE big window you see the rails sizzle by only a few feet below ground level. Passing trains thunder by, seemingly overhead. Cool stewardesses serve you on trays without mishap.

Back in June 1952 Young's "train X" had a test run between Detroit and Plymouth, Mich., hitting 108 miles per hour. During this test, says one observer, a glass of water on a seat arm remained steady as a rock.

When will the train of the future arrive?

The Rock Island Railroad has already ordered two Talgo-type trains from ACF for delivery December 1955. The train of the future was discussed by presidents of four eastern railroads last week. Various car manufacturers talked with them.

A standard design for a future train is hoped for. That way the railroads can club together on orders in big lots and save money.

U.S. Public Health Service Checking Uranium Danger

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Are uranium miners exposing themselves to radioactivity which could shorten their lives? The U.S. Public Health Service is going to find out, if it can.

The service, in cooperation with the Atomic Energy Commission and the health departments of Utah, Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico, has sent two motor caravans onto the vast Colorado Plateau, heart of the nation's uranium boom, to gather the facts.

Actually begun in 1950, the study may take years more to complete.

The motorized medical team are scheduled to visit 20 mining districts in the four-state area this summer. Officials said that more than 1,000 miners and mill workers have been examined in the last four years.

Judge Offers Aid To Son of Actor

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"I want to stop drinking but I can't," Edward G. Robinson Jr. told the Domestic Relations Court yesterday.

"I've had some experience in those matters," replied Superior Judge Elmer D. Doyle. "I'll show you how."

So the busy judge, who handles more than 100 cases a day, offered to set aside his lunch each day for two weeks to talk to the actor's 21-year-old son, who has been arrested three times in recent months for intoxication.

Young Robinson's wife Frances, with whom he recently was reconciled, promised to help the judge.

"I hope it works," she said. "It must work."

66 YEARS ON JOB

ANDOVER, Mass. (UP)—Sixty-six years on the same job is the boast of Peter F. Cunningham, 84. In 1888 he went to work for a Boston firm selling jams and jellies. He's still working and commutes daily by train between here and Boston.

Ohio Edison's Division Picnic Set Wednesday

Annual picnic for employes of the Marion Division, Ohio Edison Co., and their families will be held Wednesday at Holiday Hill, near Delaware.

Activities are to get under way at 1 p.m. and about 450 persons are expected to attend. The division includes offices in Crestline, Delaware, Richwood and Mount Gilead in addition to Marion.

To enable employes of the Marion office to join in the event, the office here will close at noon Wednesday.

Fishing in a stocked lake on the Holiday Hill grounds will feature the afternoon's activities. Open to everyone, prizes will be awarded for the first fish caught after 1:30 p.m., for the largest and also for the most fish caught during the afternoon.

Pony rides have been arranged for the children, there will be hayrides for everyone, and forms of amusement will include volley ball, badminton, croquet, horseshoe, ping pong and shuffle board.

A basket picnic is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. with coffee, soft drinks and ice cream to be furnished by the company. In the evening there will be both round and square dancing.

Co-chairmen for the picnic are Ray Semmler and George Schwab. Serving on committees are the following: Miss Carolyn Creager, chairman, LeRoy Stull, Vern Russell, John Murray, Robert Cosgrove, Miss Beverly Norton, Larry Kersey, Miss Shannon Dunn, Erich Fritz, Gene Hudson, Miss Carol Oberlander and Paul Smiley, registration; Mrs. Lillian Hill, chairman, Miss Dora Leib, Miss Ruth Kleinmaier and Leonard Ahmay, children's games; Louis Kull, chairman, Ralph Bond and Walter Grudosky, fishing contest; and Larry Mull, horseshoe chairman.

Attends Summer Camp

Miss Dorotha Goyer of Marion has returned from the Erie Side Bible Conference at Willoughby, O., where she was a girls' counselor, camp musician and leader of devotional studies. She is director of the Marion County Child Evangelism Fellowship.

Erie Side is a summer interdenominational Bible conference to which church groups from various Ohio cities send representatives. During the week, Miss Goyer presented music at services on the piano-accordion and musical sheep bells. Her class of girls won high honors in the point system for the junior age group.

The correct name of Kid Gavilan, world' welterweight champion, is Gerardo Gonzalez.

MATERNAL MIXUP. A turkey hen guards an adopted brood of 24 ducklings which it won by scaring off two chicken hens that hatched the ducklings on Gahanna, Ohio, farm.

RICHWOOD SERIES SET

RICHWOOD—A series of prayer meetings, as spiritual preparation for the Mel Martin campaign to be held in Richwood the last week in August, are being held by the First Methodist, Central Methodist and First Baptist Churches. Meetings will be held Wednesday at Central Methodist Church; July 21 at First Methodist Church; July 28, First Baptist Church. Meetings will be held Aug. 4, 11 and 18.

Citation Slated For Crestline Observer Post

CRESTLINE — The public is invited to be present for the awarding of the citation to the local post of the Ground Observers Corps on Route 30-N at the sewage disposal plant Wednesday at 1:30 p.m.

The post is one of 14 in the state to receive the citation.

This date has been designated as Ground Observers Corps Day by the U. S Air Force and the Air Defense Command. This date was chosen because it is the second anniversary of "Operation Sky Watch," when the civilian volunteers undertook a 24-hour daily plane-spotting schedule as their contribution to the air defense of this country.

The day is set aside to pay tribute to the approximately 350,000 persons serving as civilian volunteers in the Ground Observers Corps.

The awarding of the citation is the way the post is recognized for being well-manned and the exacting manner in which calls have been placed with the filter center in Columbus.

In Crestline for this presentation will be Lt. Lindell of Columbus, also R. J. Theibert, representative of North American Air Lines. A jet pilot will also be here for the occasion to present the post a miniature model jet plane. Mayor Nelson Lee will give the address of welcome, representing the city of Crestline.

The local personnel is composed of Leslie L. Segars as post supervisor, Mrs. Martin Hoffman of Leesville, chief post observer, and Mrs. Frank Sherbondy, publicity chaiman.

The post has approximately 150 workers from Crestline and Leesville representing various organizations. A number of individuals have also given their services.

The workers are on duty on two-hour shifts. Many work more than that at one time. After one person has worked 40 hours, they are awarded "wings."

TRIS SPEAKER ILL

CLEVELAND (AP)—Tris Speaker, all-time all star center fielder, was reported resting comfortably today at Lakeside Hospital. He suffered a heart attack yesterday at his home. Speaker, who had been player-manager of the Cleveland Indians' first world championship team in 1920, had planned to attend the All-Star Game today.

Radioactive Morphine Brings New Discovery

SAN FRANCISCO — (UP) — In the first experimental use of radioactive morphine, scientists at the University of California have discovered that the drug is more rapidly broken up and eliminated from the body than previously suspected.

Subjects received therapeutic doses of morphine, containing less radioactivity than received daily by everyone from cosmic radiation, and were found to eliminate the drug rapidly one hour after administration. Object of the study is to learn how morphine acts upon the body as a pain-reliever and to develop new drugs that will act the same without causing addiction.

There are more than 450,000 American Indians, on reservations or registered with the government, in the U. S. today.

Servants Will Do Sailors' Work in South Africa Navy

DURBAN, South Africa (AP) — Sailors in the South African navy are headed for an easier life. They're getting Cape Coloreds (half castes) on board to do such menial work as cleaning bathrooms and other areas and cooking.

Capt. R. P. Dryden-Dymond, commanding officer of the Coastal Command, says 134 Cape Coloreds are now being trained at the Capetown base. They will have the status of servants, not sailors, and will not wear uniform.

Sailors will continue to clean their guns and other such equipment, Dryden-Dymond said, but the net result will be to make their life more comfortable and provide more time for training.

WYANDOT 4-H MEETING

UPPER SANDUSKY — Approximately 500 4-H Club members, advisers and parents attended the county-wide 4-H campfire which was held at the Salem Township School last Thursday night. The announcers for the program were John Romig and Margaret Schilling who acted as chief foreman and assistant respectively. David Jenkins, associate county agent, said 20 boys and girls 4-H clubs participated in the program.

The heating of wood in order to convert it into carbon or charcoal may have been the first chemical process discovered by man.

Around Council's Table

Marion City Council adopted 10 pieces of legislation, heard some complaints, received some petitions and discussed other routine business at its meeting last night at city hall.

Hospital Renovation

Unanimously approved with no comment on the part of the councilmen was an ordinance authorizing the safety-service director to advertise for bids and award contracts for renovating the present City Hospital into a city hall.

Safety-Service Director Ralph Forrest told the councilmen at a caucus meeting prior to the public meeting that he needed such authority in order to avoid delay in the renovation project. He noted that much of the exterior and interior redecorating has been completed by city crews and that he is now ready to contract for installation of plumbing facilities in the basement of the building to serve the city jail installation.

He said that any contractural work costing over $1,000 must be advertised for bids and the lowest and best bidder awarded the contract.

School Catch Basin

A petition from some 450 east side parents for installation of a catch basin in the vicinity of Indiana and Pennsylvania Aves. was presented to Council by a delegation headed by Miss Philomen D. Gregg, principal of the George Washington School.

The petition asked for the catch basin because of a sanitation condition existing at the George Washington School when run-off rain water forms pools on school grounds. William Slack, president of Council, referred the matter to the sewer committee for appropriate action.

Fire Department

A request from Fire Chief Owen A. Sifritt for reorganization of the fire department to provide two assistant chiefs and six lieutenants was reported to Council by Harold Smith, first ward, municipal service committee chairman.

He noted that the reorganization is estimated to cost the city an additional $845 a month and will necessitate the hiring of two additional firemen to fill the ranks after promotion of two present captains to the proposed assistant chief positions.

Slack referred the matter to a joint meeting of the municipal service and finance committees for further study and appropriate action.

Plat Accepted

An ordinance accepting a plat of Prichard's second addition to the city dedicating streets and alleys to the city was unanimously approved following brief discussion.

Council twice previously considered ordinances to accept the plat but objected to a clause in it which proposed to dedicate five lots in the area, which is located west of Blaine Ave. and south of Bellefontaine Ave., to the city if the city would maintain them as a recreational area.

Council at its last meeting expressed the hope that the five lots might be dedicated to the city without the requirement they be maintained for a recreational area.

Harold Fralich, lands and buildings committee chairman, was requested to inquire into this possibility. He reported last night that George Scantland Jr., who is developing the area, objected to this because it would permit the city to use the land for any purpose it cared to, which use might be detrimental to the properties.

Farlich said his committee, on the basis of this objection, decided to order in legislation which would accept the plat for the streets but disclaim any interest in any lots or lands for recreational area.

He pointed out that there was a slight amendment to the original plat presented to Council which was necessary to avoid construction of a dead-end street. Because of this slight change and the fact it was not previously approved by the planning commission, he questioned whether Council should approve the plat subject to approval of the planning commission.

Piacentino ruled that the Council is the higher authority and could adopt the proposed ordinance, then if the planning commission failed to approve the plat supplemental appropriate legislation could be brought before Council.

Join Association

An ordinance authorizing the city civil service commission to apply for membership in the Civil Service Assembly of the United States and Canada was unanimously adopted.

Piacentino reported that the cost of the membership would be $75 a year for which amount the civil service commission could obtain standard test forms for police, fire, and other city civil service positions.

Alley Vacated

An ordinance vacating the first alley west of Uncapher Ave. running north and south from Keener Ave. to Broad St. was unanimously approved. Ralph Williams, chairman of the streets and alleys committee, reported there was no opposition from abutting property owners.

Pay Claim Paid

A claim of the Boyd Funeral Home for damage caused to a small porch facing a north-south alley on the west side of the funeral home by a city garbage truck was ordered paid by Council. The claim for repairs to the small porch, struck and torn from the main building by a truck driven by Robert Dale Smith, was for $47.21.

Appropriation Okayed

An ordinance to appropriate additional $1,000 to the Municipal Court incidental fund was unanimously approved.

Finance Committee Chairman Don Quaintance reported that his committee hadn't studied the request but said that he had investigated it prior to the Council meeting.

He reported that the money was needed to pay for stamps and stationary used in the court and noted that one trial docket book — one of which is used each two weeks by the court—costs $69, while other stationary and mailing costs are increasing. He pointed out that Council previously appropriated $2,000 for this purpose and that this amount was all but used up. He said there was no doubt of the need or the additional appropriation.

New Water Mains

Two ordinances authorizing the Marion Water Co. to install additional mains and hydrants were both passed unanimously. The mains are to be located on Whitmore St., Thew Ave., Underwood Ave., Olney Ave. south of Duluth Ave., and extension of a main in Greenwood St. north from Mandana Ave. One or more fire hydrants are to be installed in each of the mains except on Greenwood St.

Radio Repair

An ordinance authorizing the employment of D. A. Brown as radio technician to service police and fire department radio equipment was unanimously adopted.

Safety-Service Director Ralph Forrest said cost of the service, including all replacement parts and repair work, is $12 for each radio unit each month. The police department has seven units and the fire department three, he said.

Phone Booth Okayed

An ordinance authorizing the General Telephone Co. to install a pay station booth at the intersection of Bellefontaine and Woodrow Ave. and Davids St. was unanimously approved. Robert G. Haldeman, at-large, said the land in question is not used by the city for any other purpose.

The proposed location of the booth is on a triangle shaped piece of ground which was formerly the site of a waiting room for interurban car riders. It now serves only as the location of street light cluster.

Other Council Action

In other action, Council:

1. Received four petitions for various improvements. Included was one for vacation of an alley between Woodrow and Congress St. near Whittier and Clinton Sts.; another for paving, curbs and gutters and sidewalks on Uhler Ave. south from a point some 400 feet south of Indiana Ave.; a third for a sewer extension on Brentwood Dr. and Glenwood Dr.; and the fourth for curbs and gutters on Florence St. from Davids St. to Uncapher Ave.

City Engineer Thomas Cathers reported that this last petition failed to have sufficient signers. He said 46 per cent of property owners on the street signed it and 60 per cent is needed. He suggested it be sent back to backers of the proposal to obtain the additional signers. Council President Slack referred all the petitions to appropriate committees for proper action.

2. Heard a complaint from William Dutton of Avondale Ave. and Paul Aldrich of Bartram Ave. concerning the condition of the paving on Bartram Ave. Dutton said complaints of chuck-holes in the street had been referred to the city administration many times and nothing was done to correct the conditions. Aldrich verified Dutton's claims. Dutton also claimed there were several alleys in the area that were dusty and full of chuck holes. He said a spring on his car was broken while driving over one of the holes on Bartram Ave. President Slack referred the complaints to the streets and alleys committee for proper action.

3. Received a claim of William Gannon of 454 Grant St. for payment of damages to his car caused by tree limbs extending from a city truck the night of June 16. Gannon presented two estimates for repair of damage to his car in the amounts of $167.88 and $114.55. Safety-Service Director Forrest recommended payment of the claim. It was referred to the municipal service committee.

4. Heard a report from Harold Smith, municipal service committee chairman, that a proposed ordinance to restrict the use of bows and arrows in the city has been tabled and that his committee had decided to sit tight on a previously adopted city anti-card playing ordinance which some groups have asked be repealed.

5. Excued Herman Rinehart, third ward, for his absence from the meeting. All other Councilmen were present. The invocation was given by the Rev. Milton Lashley, pastor of Quinn's Chapel A.M.E. Church.

First Things First

With his typical flair for the unexpected and the dramatic, Gov. Lausche descended upon the scene of the annual governors conference Sunday with a announcement of plans for an expansive development of Ohio state parks, lakes and recreational facilities.

Almost everyone is for good parks, beautiful lakes and improved playspots, and on the surface it would seem that the governor had struck a responsive chord with the people of Ohio, as he has so many times in the past.

But upon careful scrutiny, his suggestion for using the state surplus to finance his proposed program is certain to run into serious trouble—and justifiably so.

The governor is as familiar as anyone with Ohio's pressing needs. If the state has 25 million dollars, or 40 million or as much as 70 million to spend over and above its budgetary requirements, we have a few suggestions for its use to much better advantage.

In the first place, the cities have been crying for years because so inequitable a percentage of the sales tax money has been returned to them. And no one has to look beyond Canton to understand why, Cantonians pour millions of dollars anually into state and federal coffers while its municipal government operates on a comparative pittance.

But even if the cities' case were not valid, the state has more than enough places to expend the money — on projects, we believe whose priority is more urgent and whose long range benefits would be infinitely greater.

Even with the appropriations that have been made, Ohio is far behind other states in facilities for the care of the mentally incompetent. Its institutions for correction, especially for juvenile, are woefully inadequate and overcrowded. Its highways are in a state of deplorable disrepair, and even the half-billion-dollar improvement program approved by the voters last November will fall far short of complete modernization.

It isn't as if the parks and recreational spots had been shamefully neglected. The assembly appropriated $5,575,000 for their maintenance and expansion in the current bienium, not to mention the $2,512,000 for the division of forestry and $6,000,000 for the division of wildlife, most of which is financed from hunting and fishing license fees.

The goveror's project has its points of merit, but it completely ignores the good logic of putting first things first. It is our urgent suggestion that the legislature whe next it assembles give serious consideration to the impelling needs of our day rather than to those things which would be merely nice to have.

Elyria's 'Negotiated Peace'

Elyria's city councilmen by a 5-4 vote have accepted the terms of a settlement of the city's differences with Ohio Turnpike Commission over its right of eminent domain inside the city.

There was more at stake in this argument than the scheduled completion of Ohio's first toll road. Those who are describing the settlement as a victory for the Turnpike Commission are using too strong a word.

The outcome of the argument suggests there was a negotiated peace. This is what happens when two combatants cannot lick each other but are tired of fighting. It is what happened in Korea.

Americans traditionally believe in unconditional surrender, which may explain why it appeared at times that Ohio Turnpike zealots were in favor of razing Elyria with a bulldozer if it didn't yield to the expediters of the state's first toll road. But the fact is that Elyria has rights as well as the Turnpike Commission; that every Ohio city has rights which this new type of agency will have to respect.

If that point has been made clear by a negotiated peace that will make toll-road construction through Elyria possible only by Elyria's consent and by payment of certain claims which otherwise might have been ignored, the argument has been settled properly.

What Crops? What Supports?

Most city dwellers who read about farm price supports do not know what crops are supported, where they are grown, or how much income they bring farmes.

The news stories deal mostly with whether Congress is changing or supporting the parity rate. Therefore, it might be well to remind ourselves crops are involved and what they mean to farmers who grow them.

The five basic crops on which the Eisenhower administration has asked flexible supports are: wheat, corn, cotton, rice and peanuts. Tobacco was recommended for rigid supports only when marketing quotas were in effect.

The importance of the income from these crops to farmers is underlined in a study by Congressional Quarterly which shows that for the nation as a whole they account for 23 per cent of the entire farm income. This is almost a fourth from only six crops.

In 17 states, the figure is less than 10 per cent, but in another 12 states 40 per cent or more of cash farm income is derived from the basics. The 12 states are: Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Montana, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Carolina and Tennessee.

International Morality

By David Lawrence

Martin Gives Outstanding Speech on Co-Existence

Is there a deterioration in public morals going on in the world among statesmen abroad and among some of the so-called "intellectual" groups in all countries, including our own?

This would hardly be a pertinent question to ask were it not for the news dispatches of recent days bearing on matters of the utmost importance to the advancement of public morals.

Thus a well-known scientist lies to his own government and conceals vital information which misleads the security officers of the United States Army over a period of several months while his own government is engaged in war. Yet, when he is formally declared, by a competent board, to be a "security risk" for the future, an association of scientists in a public statement glosses over what he did and says there is something wrong with the "security regulations."

The press almost universally has denounced the behavior of the scientist in question but there has been a curious indifference in some other quarters where morality is often discussed.

While sensational sermons were preached in some prominent pulpits a few weeks ago denouncing a certain United States senator who had expressed, in a brusque manner, his dissent from the action of the U. S. Army in awarding an honorable discharge to an officer, not a sermon from those same pulpits has appeared in the headlines about the lack of moral strength of the scientist who put his own arrogant judgment above the wishes of his government in a matter of internal security protection in wartime.

Nor is this an isolated case.

NOT SO LONG ago 83 cadets at West Point, in order to help the football team, violated the honor code of the Academy by cheating in examinations or by helping other cadets to cheat. There were voices raised even in Congress which sought to gloss over what had happened and urged that the Army's decision to dismiss the cadets from the U. S. Military Academy be reversed.

Today there is a large issue of morals imbedded in an international controversy. It has to do with the admission of an unmoral government to the United Nations.

The London Times says that "British public opinion looks at that problem as a matter of law and not of morals."

Is it really a matter of law? If it were, Britain would not be opposing the admission into the United Nations of Franco's government in Spain, which controls all of Spanish territory, and certainly the refusal of Soviet Russia to permit the entry of Italy and Japan, which have every basis in international law for admission, shows how hypocritical and insincere is the claim that it is a "question of law."

The truth is it is a question of morals, and an aggressor government's misbehavior is being glossed over in the interest of political expediency in Britain.

PERHAPS THE greatest speech of the year thus far on the topic of international morality has just been delivered by speaker Martin of the House of Representatives, who deplored Churchill's proposal for "co-existence" with Communism. He said in part:

"The truth of the matter is that Communism has no morals. It is amoral, it is antimoral. Unless we understand this we cannot begin to grasp the true nature of Communism.

"One of the tragedies of our times is the era just expired, during which too many people who should have known better and too many governments which should have known better regarded Communism as some advanced form of liberalism—as some vague, new, enlightened movement. Thank God that today people more and more are rejecting such nonsense. . .

"But as the 'great illusion' dims, as the tragic flirtation with Communism ends, how many of us today have taken the pains to correctly inform ourselves on the truth of what occurred during that period?

"How many hundreds of simple but accurate facts have escaped our knowledge, or, worse, have been spoon-fed us in disguise by pro-Communist propagandists who deliberately employed the weapon of untruth? . . .

"How many people know that, in the 36 years in which the Soviet government has been in power, it has broken every single agreement or treaty that it has made with the free nations of the world? That it has used every conference table and every international forum to stall, disrupt and divide those with whom the representatives of the Soviets met? . . .

"And when you get through the entire list, the entire history of Communism from beginning to end, you cannot find one iota of the democratic process, one smattering of respect for law, one single tenet of morality, or a single expression of regard for human liberty.

"I ask you: What possible chance is there for 'co-existence' of this outlaw conspiracy alongside a civilization based on truth, trust and faith, on freedom and the individual dignity of man? What new liberalism is there here? What basis is there for the handshake or the treaty when the life of the pact ceases the moment it is made? On what grounds can we base mutual respect? . . .

"It is very well to talk about 'trying once more,' 'peaceful co-existence' and 'sitting down again at the conference table,' but we have gone to too many conferences in the past—with nothing more than a calfskin brief case, a bottle of ink and a pious hope—not to have learned our lesson by now."

THERE ARE SOME renewed calls for a "positive approach."

President Eisenhower's speech more than a year ago called for the fulfillment by Soviet Russia of existing agreements as a demonstration of good faith, and that call has been ignored.

Now the idea of admitting an aggressor government to the United Nations, sponsored by Soviet Russia, is accepted in too many parts of the free world as an expedient move.

It is part of the unmoral attitude toward wrongdoers which glosses over misdeeds. It's like saying to a court: "Well, after all it's only his first murder—why punish a man for his foolish indiscretions or mistakes of a bygone day?"

Fortunately this is not the prevailing moral climate today among the rank and file of the people of the world.

Adios, Senor!

Foreign Policy by Impulse on Indochina

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Foreign policy by impulse. That's Secretary of State Dulles' policy on Indochina. He could have foreseen the crisis and planned for it. He didn't. When it came, he rushed off to Europe, seking a solution. He found none. Now, suddenly, he's off to Europe, again. Both trips were on the spur of the moment.

He had talked big. It produced no action. He had talked optimistically. It proved erroneous. The French may make a peace that will let the Communists take much of Indochina now, all of it eventually. Dulles seems helpless to stop it and apparently feels helpless. The record tells the story.

On April 18, 1953, three months after he took office, he said the "Communists in the Far East can no longer count on winning by shifting their strength and by focusing attack on one or another free world position that is isolated from the others."

THAT IS PRECISELY what the Chinese Communists did after they got an armistice in Korea in mid-1953. They began pouring supplies and advisers into Indochina to help the Communist-led Vietminh against the French.

On Jan. 25 began the conference between Dulles and the foreign ministers of Britain, France and Russia: Eden, Bidault and Molotov. Before arriving there Dulles said the conference would be a waste of time if all Molotov wanted to do was divide the Allies.

That's all the conference accomplished. Molotov used it to start the machinery for dividing the Allies. The main purposes of the conference — unification of Germany and an Austrian peace treaty—got nowhere. Molotov didn't bend an inch on them.

But he got agreement by Dulles, Eden and Bidault to meet with him and the Chinese Communist Premier, Chou En-lai, at Geneva in April to discuss peace in Korea and Indochina. The French, tired of fighting eight years in Indochina, were anxious for peace.

On March 29 Dulles suddenly said the possibility of Communist domination of all Southeast Asia should be stopped by "united action." Any step so momentous would seem to call for coosultation between Dulles and America's allies. Apparently he sprang it without consulting them. Five Allied ambassadors called on him the next day to find out what he had in mind.

Nevertheless, on April 5, he told the House Foreign Affairs Committee that while the situation in Indochina seemed "fraught with danger' there was no reason to question the French plan for winning in Indochina by 1955. This was at the very moment when the Vietminh were beginning to overwhelm the French at Dien Bien Phu.

Six days later, April 11, Dulles flew to London to get the British and French to join in "united action" to save Indochina. He had had almost 15 months to plan for such action in Indochina if crisis occurred. There is no sign he did any such planning. He began when the crisis arrived.

The British turned Dulles down, preferring to wait for the outcome of the Geneva conference before getting into a war in Asia. Dulles made it clear, in repeated statements, that this country wouldn't go alone into Indochina to help the French. The French, with no hope of American interventian, went to Geneva looking for peace.

The conference opened April 26. Dulles stayed seven days. He sat by while the French talked with the Communists about a truce in Indochina.

By May 11 Dulles, back home, was talking of the possible loss of all Indochina but thought it possible for an anti-Red coalition to hold the rest of Asia. He planned talks with Britain and other allies on this.

But the foreign ministers who met at Geneva all went home to talk things over and are back in Geneva now. Dulles, not wanting to give American blessing to a deal that might lose Indochina, did not plan to go near Europe. He apparently had no plan as late as noon yesterday. The French asked him to go to Paris, at least. He took off suddenly last night for Paris.

Handy Men

By TRUMAN TWILL

What every woman yearns to possess, if she can't marry money, is a handy man. She wants someone who:

Can bottle-feed a new baby on the night shift without spilling anything or hurting the baby;

Can hang wallpaper, paint furniture, do exterior decorating without falling off a ladder and casual glazing on a few minutes' notice.

Can plant trees, perform green-thumb magic with seedlings, prune shrubbery, take care of a lawn and take complete charge of kitchen garden;

Can do light masonry, carpentering, tinsmithing, lay up a dry wall, handle remedial landscaping, handle light housekeeping chores;

Sit with a baby, be a consultant in child psychiatry, take charge of continuous courses in human relations, set a good example for the young;

Repair light machinery, wash cars, clip dogs, handle practical assignments in veterinary medicine, read bedtime stories;

Mix a salad, do outdoor cooking, take charge of inside plumbing, install screens and storm windows without accidents, be a witty conversationalist;

Imitate a bartender, perform like a busboy, move furniture, remember names, carve meat like a butcher, hang pictures like an interior decorator;

Be a short-order cook, install electric wiring installations, repair furniture, refinish antiques, untangle jammed zippers;

Train animals, know how to get rid of undesirable visitors, look like a clothier's model when it is time to put his best foot forward;

Get rid of the junk and rubbish without grumbling when it's time to bulldoze the basement, pick cherries in season, see merit in hats where no merit exists;

Lend a sympathetic ear at all hours of the day and night, keep his lip buttoned when no one wants to hear what he has to say;

Remember the names and circumstances of all his wife's acquaintances, never forget the circumstances of all his acquaintances;

Never forget his mother's cooking and the attributes of other female acquaintances;

Drive carefully, always be on time, leave for work and come home from same without any unseemly fuss or confusion, leave his working problems at a remote distance from home;

Be observant of all anniversaries and special occasions, know how to work problems in arithmetic and algebra, bang out an English composition on five minutes' notice or clear up an obscure question about grammar;

Remember to close the garage doors before windstorms, the windows during rainstorms and be a tower of strength and reassurance during thunder storms;

Know where to find the clothing, magazines, books, keepsakes and assorted bits of paraphernalia he will need from time to time;

Refinish floors, nail down carpeting, lay linoleum, hang curtains, open clogged drains, plug up leaks in spouting, build trellises, start balky engines, play games with dash and verve, tell jokes, set up lawn chairs without profanity and earn enough money in his spare time to appease the ever threatening wolf.

The wonder of it is — is it not? —that so many lucky women have found us.

GRIN AND BEAR IT By George Lichty

"She says it's an emergency, doctor! . . . says her little boy is growing up to be just like his father . . ."

From Our Readers

To The Star:

I am writing this to show my appreciation to a group of women and girls who have spent the last two weeks at Barks Woods, helping to make good citizens and future mothers and homemakers of a group of little girls, Brownies and Girl Scouts.

I attended the last day ceremonies and it was very impressive to see what they had learned. To see the flag ceremony at the close of camp was a thrill that made me appreciate more what America stands for.

I serve on the Scout committee of the Glenwood PTA and while I am not able to help with the actual activities I take off my hat to the busy mothers who devote so much time to such a worthy cause.

Do we realize what it means to mold character in the most precious thing in the world, a child? I am sure those girls learned how close they were to God and the wonders of His creation. They had fashioned beautiful centerpieces out of leaves and flowers and had learned to do things with nothing but supplies from the woods. They made tables to hold their materials and the articles they had made.

It was wonderful to see their consideration of the next person in the routine of camp life. It would put some of us to shame to see how neat their camps were, which all goes back to the people who taught them.

The little fee that was charged to send the children should make folks who have no children to send dig down and next year send a child they may know who needs just that training to start her off on the right road to happier citizenship.

Hurrah for the Scouts and the good program they have.

Target Practice

Wives who express envy of the lives led by the movie stars should be reminded that although their own days may involve hard work and household drudgery, they run absolutely no risk of having their husbands drag them out into the backyard to throw them into the swimming pool.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Hard-To-Take Photographs

The undisturbed mood reflected by police, detectives and other law enforcement officials as they pose for pictures with repulsive punks who have committed outrageous killings is pretty current and hard to take. Not a sign of indignation appeared on the faces of New York officers of the law in pictures taken with one of a pair of extra vicious slayer who then went on a hunt for somebody whose car they could steal and who picked out a husband father fishing on a Manhattan Beach pier. What's become of the old-fashioned cop who became visibly sickened and agitated by foul crimes

Studying this New York photo of cops you could detect no more concern than if they were posing for a group photo with a Man of the Year. . . . What goes

There was a time when fear of the police was deep in the hearts of bad actors, but it seems to have disappeared. . . . (In fact, the killers of the fisherman then took his car on a hunt for another victim and slugged a pedestrian "who looked like a cop off duty" so they could get his gun!) . . . Let's have a few snapshots in which a cop is establishing the mood of a man who would like to punch a killer in the nose, even on coast to coast video! Law enforcement officials who pose languidly and unemotionally with murderers strike us as no help in the war on crime.

In so many cases today the hoodlums have been kept in circulation, despite long records, that we seldom see a picture of them without feeling that beside them as accomplices, should be a few judges, probation officers, prosecutors and institution wardens who in so many instances are responsible for "the events leading up to the crime." . . . Never before in American history have young men, and mere boys, seemed so hardened to revolting crimes.

The natural instinct of a kid is to be kindly and humane. . . . What is there in American life that snuffs out this instinct, renders him cruel as a black panther and makes him capable of crimes against which most savages would draw the line? . . . In our book the fact that kids come up from kindergarten age on a diet of TV horror programs and movie blueprints of murder is largely responsible.

Plenty of Americans would like to see a police chief somewhere come out with the following notice in all station houses:

Fair Warning. Easy on those pictures with foul balls, men. You'll probably have to pose with the punks, but don't act too happy about it. A murderer of schoolgirls should make you too sick to your stomach to have your picture taken with him without your indignation showing

A slayer or accomplice in the slaying of a lone fisherman ought to arouse in you a feeling of revulsion so deep that you couldn't possibly pose with him as if posing with Mr America. Don't seem so carefree about it men! Too many other youngsters will see the photo."

Bicarb, a horse which is winning quite a few races is — you'll never guess it — by Brides Biscuit-Hard Tack.

News of Other Years

40 YEARS AGO — Fearing the sudden turn of affairs in Mexico would result in General Alvaro Obregon and Gen. Pablo Gonzales pushing their forces to Mexico City before the division of the north of the Mexican constitutionalist army could reach there, Gen. Francisco Villa ordered all of his commanders in the field to prepare for an immediate movement southward.

20 YEARS AGO — Chancellor Adolf Hitler told the German people and the world that he would make a brutally frank declaration of events "which will live in the memory of our history."

Housewives and men in the street felt the Pacific coast's maritime strike as an increasing number of labor unions joined the movement toward a general strike in the San Francisco bay area. Shortages of food, gasoline and fuel became an actual threat.

Looking toward treaty strength for 1942, the navy had adopted a plan for calling for 5,500 more enlisted men and the laying down of 19 new ships in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1936.

Search for an eccentric peddler as the kidnaper of 18-month-old Bobby Connor, son of Charles H. Connor, New York mortgage broker, was ordered after fruitless search by an army of state troopers, police and volunteers dashed hopes that he might have strayed into the under brush of nearby estates.

An official registry for nurses was to be opened Monday at 199 Olney Ave. with Miss E. Marie Fulton, registered nurse, in charge.

A mysterious "Black League" said leaders of the striking onion weeders of the Scioto marshland in Hardin County, had offered to bring terror and destruction to the growers.

Radio and Television

By JOHN CROSBY

Don't Know Too Much, Men

There has been more lofty thinking about TV commercials these last couple of months than at any other time in my memory. Just possibly it might do some good, though I see no great evidence of it yet.

J. CROSBY

Out in Chicago, one of the loftiest thinking ad agencies of them all, Weiss and Geller, which has gone overboard on the psychiatric approach to advertising, stuck a panel of social science authorities in front of a television set for 14 consecutive hours which is enough to drive even a social scientist out of his wits.

-:-

THEY CAME UP with some rather interesting observations, though. For one thing, after 14 hours of bright-eyed damsels showing off their new hair rinse, their refrigerators, their ready cake mix, the panel decided that women doing commercials to other women arouse thoughts of a nagging mother and create resentments.

If you remove the pyschiatric husk from that kernel of thought, it means that women can be irritating when they sell you things.

In fact, I would like to go a little further than the social scientists and say that women can arouse resentment not only among women but among men. It has always seemed to me odd that in 30 years of radio there were almost no women delivering commercials. They were all men. Even the soap salesmen were largely men. Now the women have taken over TV in droves, generating enough resentment to provide electric light to a small city.

THE PANEL WHICH, incidentally, consisted of two psychoanalysts, a cultural anthropologist, two sociologists, an experimental psychologist and two professors of social science — altogether an imposing collection of massive domes —pointed out that women have great suspicion of women who know too much. I'm willing to go along with that theory but I was terribly interested to know where, for God's sake, they found a woman delivering a commercial on TV who looked like she knew too much.

I don't know who they got delivering the spiels in Chicago but out our way, most of the fillies in this line of work, while undeniably pretty, looks as if their lovely noggins had never been defiled by a single thought.

That doesn't mean that men are the answer necessarily. The scientists declared that the women resented men, too, if they seemed to invade women's domain — the kitchen, say — with any degree of confidence.

It's all right for the man to be in the kitchen but—if I read the scientists correctly — he must not be at ease there and he better not know too much. Tops at this sort of knowing something but not too much is Arthur Godfrey, the tall domes said, which may conceivably be the dimmest compliment ever paid to Arthur.

As a matter of fact, the perfect announcer, the scientists agreed, must be quite a bit of a stumblebum. Not only must he not know too much, he comes across better if he's all thumbs while demonstrating how easy the icebox door swings open and maybe even fluff a line or two.

Next time you demonstrate a can-opener, men, cut yourself a little bit. Or maybe you could contrive to slam the deep-freeze door on one thumb. Make yours, according to the scientists, "human and fallible,' and therefore, lovable. If you see a whole spate of announcers tripping over their own feet and stumbling around in their lines, you must remember they're just putting you at your ease.

WHILE NOT QUITE going so far as to say that American housewives are just a collection of neurotics, the scientists imply it strongly in one of their final recommendations. It is their thesis — and a more debatable one I can't imagine — that the average housewife is not nearly so worried about whether the product is good enough as whether she is good enough for the product.

Frankly I never met any female who harbored any fears, conscious or subconscious, that she didn't measure up to the soap flakes. But then I move in a limited circle. I do think, though, after reviewing the qualifications that I'd make one hell of a good announcer. I've never been known to open even a can of coffee without putting at least three fingers out of action for a week and my diction is so human and fallible that it is almost totally unintelligible, which is to say, terribly lovable.

In Loving Memory

Of Betty Roesch Hissong.

One bright beautiful morning,
God took our loved one home;
For her it was a glorious dawning
But for us, we had to groan.

They say time heals all sorrow
And helps one to forget,
But time thus far has only proved
How much we miss her yet.

It's been a long hard year
And seemed too hard to bear,
But God in His infinite wisdom
Knows more than we'll ever share.

We can't understand, not now,
Why all her dreams and plans were changed.
But somehow, somewhere there's a reason,
That God ere long will make plain.

Bring Your Carpet Problems To Lennon's!

Save at Lennon's on Room Size Rugs
and
Wall-to-Wall Carpet

When installed by Lennon's experts, nothing can equal custom-tailored rugs or wall-to-wall carpeting for adding that note of "completeness" to your home. Rooms that seem to "lack something" take on a new depth and beauty with Lennon floor covering.

The reason is evident. Quality carpeting plus expert workmanship by carpet mechanics with years of experience. And Lennon's does the job in the proper manner. With a wall-to-wall installation, there are no ugly, bulging edges along the wall — no tack heads showing—no puckers to spoil the effect. Inspect any of our jobs. You'll see why the owners are proud ... why we, too, are proud of our work.

You good folks who have been waiting — bring your carpet problems to Lennon's. Our selection of patterns and colors was never larger, and of course, you save money on Lennon's lower prices. Bring in your measurements or simply call 2-2538 for expert advice without obligation.
